Dear Sirs

Your Client: Noelle K Dit Rawe
Our Client: Steel Services Limited

Thank you for your letters dated 27th and 29th October 2003.

Our client's Part 36 Offer was received by you, by fax on 21st October 2003. Given the slight delay in delivering the enclosures to that correspondence, we are prepared to agree that the deemed date of service of the Part 36 Offer was 23rd October 2003.

Accordingly, the offer is open until 13th November 2003. Our client is not prepared to extend the offer beyond that date. Your client has already had one week to consider the offer and ought to be able to respond within the 21 day term of the offer whether her solicitor is present or not. With respect, we would suggest that this is a matter that can be dealt with by another solicitor.

Yours faithfully

CKFT
