Dear Sirs

What I did NOT know- as I was about to leave for a one week holiday - was that 2 days later, a so-called 'hearing' was scheduled to take place... ...because Andrew David Ladsky's lapdogs in West London County Court had ensured that I was NOT informed of it: 25.05.04 ltr from the RCJ to me, ...leaving the coast clear to issue a 28.05.04 Order against me, stating that the action be "stayed" - even though corrupt judge Madge KNEW that agreement had been reached: TRANSCRIPT; WLCC # 13.2

Consent Order

On 7 May 2004 The Royal Courts of Justice Advice Bureau faxed you a copy of the Consent Order on which I had made amendments because I was unhappy with the wording on your draft.

I understand from your telephone conversation at the time with the RCJ Advice Bureau, that you objected to my amendments.

The covering letter sent by the RCJ Advice Bureau suggested that, if you could not sign the Consent Order, you provide a further draft for approval. I have not had correspondence from you since (nor have I had any from West London County Court).

Please, find attached an amended version of the Consent Order which, I trust, addresses the objections you had with the previous version ¹.

Please, reply within 7 days.

Yours sincerely

Noëlle Klosterkötter-Dit-Rawé
