Dear Mr Carter

Re: Complaint against Mr Stanley Gallagher by Ms Noëlle Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawé

Thank you for your letter of 23 April.

Absolutely not true; see Gallagher's email to me of 23.01.04
- I followed with my 26.01.04 complaint to his Chambers

I am sorry about any confusing messages Mr Gallagher received from our offices. I fear it has been impossible to find out exactly what happened here but I do not hold Mr Gallagher or Chambers to blame.

In accordance with the Bar Council's policy, Chambers should consider a complaint, in the first instance, if made directly to them. If the complainant remains dissatisfied, he/she then has the option of approaching us.

I would therefore be grateful if Chambers would now consider this complaint and let me know the outcome in due course.

= The lapdog 'regulator' Bar Council inventing excuses to cover-up the fact that its member had not even acknowledged my complaint 10 weeks later

I will let the complainant know.

Yours sincerely

Michael Scott
Complaints Commissioner
