Dear Ms Klosterkötter-Dit-Rawé

Re: Complaint by you against Mr Stanley Harold Gallagher

Thank you for your letter of 3 May.

Given what you say, I am perfectly happy to investigate your complaint, which I will now do.

However, I must say I think it is a pity, despite your reservations, that Arden Chambers had not had the opportunity to do so (possibly due to the misunderstanding between our offices) especially as I received a letter agreeing to do so from Mr Carter dated 4 May. It might well have been that they could have given you satisfaction and, if not, you could then have come to me; giving you two rungs of the ladder, so to speak.

We will be in touch in due course.

Yours sincerely

Michael Scott
Complaints Commissioner

= The lackey repeating his concocted cover-up excuse for Arden Chambers failing to even acknowledge my complaint after 2 months: his 28.04.04 letter to Arden and 28.04.04 to me

I view this as a threat; an attempt at coercing me.
It led to me (accurately) predict that the Bar Council would reject my - legitimate - complaint
