Dear Ms Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawe

Re: Complaint by you against Mr Stanley Harold Gallagher

I refer to your letter dated 9 December 2004.

As you recall, in our letter dated 2 November 2004 we informed you that the Complaints Commissioner had decided to seek further advice on your complaint.

Unfortunately, the practitioner member of the Professional Conduct and Complaints Committee whom we were seeking advice from had to return the file to us on 26 November 2004. We have now passed your file to a second practitioner member of the Professional Conduct and Complaints Committee to provide some advice and we are awaiting his reply. We regret this delay and hope to have some more information for you within the next 3 – 4 weeks.

Again, I apologise for any inconvenience this delay has caused you.

Yours sincerely

Karin Seidenstein
Assistant Executive Secretary
Professional Conduct and Complaints Committee
