Without Prejudice Save as to Costs

I rejected the "offer" in my 13.07.11 letter on the ground that it gave me "no reasons to discontinue my claim - which I maintain"

But, it got the 'trophy' it wanted: 'Master Eyre's FULL OF LIES 09.08.11 Order - resulting in my paying its £8,478 costs in my 22.08.11 letter It then got 2 more 'trophies': 06.10.11 Order 'from' Justice Lang; 24.10.11 Order 'from' Justice Mackay - My Comments are attached to the Orders

Re: Yourself - v- The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis (1) The Independent Police Complaints Commission (2) & The Secretary of State for the Home Department (3)

Further to the First Defendant's recent application to strike out your claim and for summary judgment, the First Defendant invites you to discontinue your claim. Should you do so and notify me accordingly on or before 22nd July, the First Defendant will not pursue costs of the application.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Ms Jennifer O'Dwyer
