Dear Madam,

- Not only would it have got away scot free – and able to claim that ALL of its (FALSE) assertions in its Defence and Application Witness Statement were 'therefore' substantiated - it would have also hit me with its other costs.
- But, it got the 'trophy' it wanted: 'Master Eyre's FULL OF LIES 09.08.11 Order - as a result of which, on 22.08.11, I paid its costs of £8,478
- This was followed by 2 other 'trophies': 06.10.11 Order 'from' Justice Lang', and 24.10.11 Order 'from' Justice Mackay.

Thank you for your letter dated 7th July 2011, of which I took delivery on the 10th.

In this letter, you state that: "*Further to the First Defendant's recent application to strike out your claim and for summary judgment, the First Defendant invites you to discontinue your claim". You then state that "should [I] do so, the First Defendant will not pursue costs of the application".*

To date, you have not given me reasons to discontinue my claim – which I maintain.

I take this opportunity to enclose the following documents I received from the Court:

- 7th June 2011 Application by the Second Defendant
- Notice of 29th July 2009 hearing

Yours sincerely,

2011
