WITNESS STATEMENT OF NOËLLE Y S KLOSTERKOTTER-DIT-RAWÉ

- This Witness Statement is based on the heavily redacted MPS' July 2009 version of the "crime reports" (2002, 2003 and 2007). The MPS ONLY supplied me with a less redacted version on 22 July 2011 (2002, 2003 and 2007 "crime reports") – AFTER I had filed and served this and IPCC Witness Statement – thereby placing me on 'an unequal footing' (CPR Overriding Objective) - as the July 2011 version provides very strong support to some of my key conclusions. This took place with Master Eyre's absolute knowledge - and therefore endorsement. (He had: (i) my Particulars of Claim (paras.10 & 25); (ii) the Witness Statements: my 19.07.11 letter to the court; (iii) I repeated it during the 29.07.11 Application 'hearing').

- The Judiciary continued to ignore it following my 30.08.11 Appeal against 'Master Eyre's 09.08.11 Order: 'Justice Lang's 06.10.11 Order; 'Justice Mackay's 24.10.11 Order refusing my 17.10.11 Request – IN THE SAME WAY THAT IT TOTALLY IGNORED THE EVIDENCE IN THE CASE.

1. I am Noëlle Y S Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawé, the Claimant in this action. I am a Litigant in Person, a pensioner, and leasehold owner of flat 3, Jefferson House, 11 Basil Street, London SW3 1AX, where I permanently reside.

2. This Witness Statement is in response to the First Defendant's 30th June 2011 Application.
3. Under the Data Protection Act 1998 ('The DPA') I sent a 28th May 2009 Subject Access Request to the First Defendant. I refer to Annex 1 of the Particulars of Claim which is my reply to its 'Section 4 – MPS Specific Information Request – What happened to cause you to contact the police?' In this document I provided a fairly detailed overview of events in relation to 3 complaints filed with the First Defendant, in 2002, 2003 and 2007. In relation to each of the 3 complaints I asked for a copy of the complaint, as well as for documentary evidence in support of various actions / omissions by the First Defendant at the time of the complaints.
4. In July 2009, I received 3 "crime reports" from the First Defendant.
5. 2002 "Crime Report" - CR:5604102/02 ('The 2002 report'). I refer to Exhibit KDR 3. It is a complaint of harassment I made to the First Defendant against my landlord, Andrew David Ladsky ('ADL') following 20 anonymous phone calls made to my home phone in February 2002. At the time, I also reported suffering other forms of harassment from ADL over the previous weeks. According to the 'Abbreviations List supplied by the First Defendant with the report, it was processed as a "Major Crime". This report is discussed below under the report heading.
6. 2003 "Crime Report"- CR:5602261/03 ('The 2003 report'). I refer to Exhibit KDR 5. This is a complaint by ADL against me to the First Defendant. As the First Defendant did not respond to my 11th February 2003 letter in which I asked for "precise detail - in writing - of the accusation", to determine what I was accused of requires referring to two documents: a letter to me from the First Defendant, and the report. They are discussed below, under the report heading.
7. Based on the 'Abbreviations List' supplied by the First Defendant, this report was processed as a "Major Crime"; "Substantiated Offence of harassment" which was "confirmed" on "25/01/2003". On "25/01/2003" the "current - status*” of the report was recorded as “Undetected”. There is no entry for “Cleared up reason”. On “06/02/2003” the entry states “Suspect Eliminated”. (There are no entries to the other sections: e.g. “How Suspect Notified”; “Date/Time Notified”. And no entry on page 17 “Suspect Elimination – Officer’s Notes”). The entry on the last page states: “Screening Decision”: “IN Crime screened “in” for further Investigation”; “Reason”: “71 IN-Solvable SP”.

8. 2007 “Crime Report” - CR:5605839/07 (The 2007 report). I refer to Exhibit KDR 7. This is a complaint against me by ADL. As the First Defendant never contacted me at any point in time in relation to this complaint, I must rely on the report to determine what I was accused of, as well as 2 e-mails sent by the First Defendant to my website Host. These are discussed below under the report heading.
 9. Based on the ‘Abbreviations List’ supplied by the First Defendant, the report is classified under “CrTpe:Bailed”; “Notifiable/MPS/Other:N-9” none of the latter are defined in the List; “Status: Undetected”
 10. This report was processed as a “RI racial incident; RS anti-Semitic incident”; Hate crime” relating to “Race” and “Religion”: “117” which must mean ‘Jewish’. It states: “Suspect Eliminated: 17.07.2008” (NB: which is 16 months after the complaint was made).
 11. In relation to elimination: “Reason Eliminated: NC No Further Action – see Details”; “Method of Detection” (no entry); “How Suspect Notified – BF No evidence of offence at this stage”; “Date/Time Notified” (no entry); “Notified by”: “Rank: PS”; “Div/D Number: 81BS”; “Warrant Number: 29”; “Initials: G”; “Surname: Latham”; “Suspect Elimination” – “Conditions” (no entry); “Officer’s Notes” (no entry). “Screening Decision”: “OUT Crime screened “out”. No further investigation”.
 12. On “17/02/2009”, the entry “Crime reclassified to no crime unconfirmed” states “The Branch Flags ‘FH’/RI’/RS’ were present in this crime report. As a result of the new ‘DV/HateCrime’ tab on the General Information screen today, there are now associated fields ('HateCrimeReligion', 'HateCrimeRace') on the new tab and these have been selected".

13. Being an individual with strongly held moral principles of right and wrong from my religious education, I was very shocked and extremely angry, especially by the 2003 and 2007 reports. The reason is because they contain many false, vicious, malicious accusations and highly disparaging assertions and opinions about me, some of which I viewed as amounting to defamation of my name, character and reputation. In addition, the First Defendant had passed the data on to, at least, one other party: social services. And the worst part of it was that I had not been given the chance to put 'my side of the story'. What also shocked me was that the First Defendant was asserting/endorsing some of the false accusations, including 'recycling' one of them from the 2003 report into the 2007 report – in spite of the classification of the 2003 report stating that I had been "Eliminated" (as detailed above).
14. Being a law-abiding, honest individual with an impeccable track record since arriving in this country in 1968, I was extremely distraught that the First Defendant held such reports on me, as: the reports portray me as a criminal, instead of what I am: the innocent victim of crime; one describes me as "suffering from mental issues"; I knew that the First Defendant had a policy of keeping crime reports against an individual until the individual reaches 100 years of age. This made me absolutely determined to exert my rights.
15. I sent the First Defendant a very detailed 38-page reply, dated 13th August 2009. I refer to Exhibit KDR 9. With this I supplied a bundle of 49 documents in support of my demands and assertions. I refer to Exhibit KDR 9.
16. The First Defendant replied by letter dated 25th August 2009. I refer to Exhibit KDR 9. I assessed this letter as dismissive, contemptuous and a denial of my rights under the DPA. It made me very angry to be treated, as I perceived it, as a non-entity who does not have the right to have rights. I therefore sent another letter to the First Defendant, dated 20th September 2009. I refer to Exhibit KDR 10. In this letter, in which I reiterated my position, I emphasised my rights under the DPA by providing comprehensive extracts; highlighted the fact that by not providing me with data it held about me, as well as had passed on to other parties, and by not providing me with the name of the recipients - the First Defendant was denying my rights, under the DPA, for fair processing requirements.

17. Due to my extensive references in this Witness Statement to my above 2 replies, I refer to: my 13th August 2009 letter as Letter A; my 20th September 2009 letter as Letter B.
18. In the 3 reports, my landlord, ADL, is described as my “neighbour”. Under paragraph 23 of its Defence, the First Defendant stated that “the effects of the error were negligible”. I strongly disagree with this.
19. The effects of doing this are major rather than “negligible” as it allowed ADL to state numerous false, malicious accusations against me and highly disparaging opinions of me without being challenged. For example, on page 25 of the 2003 report, ADL portrayed himself as having no connection with decisions taken in relation to Jefferson House, as the entry states: “The suspect seems to think that the victim is behind the company who has sent these letters asking for money”.
20. I explained the critical importance of this on pages 4, 6, 16 and 25 of Letter A, stating: “Police records must be amended to reflect the true nature of the relationship”, and supplied 6 documents in support of my position. They included:
 - (1) I refer to page 1 of Exhibit KDR 13, ADL’s 25th January 2001 letter to me and to other Jefferson House leaseholders trying to dissuade us from considering acquiring the headlease, following our being sent a Notice of First Refusal.
 - (2) I refer to page 1 of Exhibit KRD 4, the identical 11th October 2001 letters from CKFT, solicitors, to 2 Jefferson House leaseholders, stating that they had reported its client, Andrew Ladsky, to the police.

- (3) I refer to page 16 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 29th November 2002 West London County Court claim filed by CKFT, solicitors, on behalf of Steel Services, landlord for Jefferson House, against me and 13 other flats.
- (4) I refer to page 3 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 26th February 2002 Central London County Court claim filed by Portner and Jaskel, solicitors, on behalf of Steel Services, against the Jefferson House leaseholder of flat 12.
- (5) I refer to page 46 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 3rd October 2006 letter to my then website host, from Portner and Jaskel, identifying its client as being ADL.
- (6) I refer to page 12 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 5th November 2002 e-mail to me from the Kensington & Chelsea Tenancy Relations Officer that he had been approached by ADL who asked to be provided with copy of all that I had supplied to the Tenancy Relations Officer. (As per my rights, I had approached the Tenancy Relations Officer to determine the name of the directors controlling Jefferson House).
21. On page 21 of Letter B, I stated that, the fact that ADL was the landlord and I am his tenant “are of crucial importance”. On page 22, I emphasised the evidence I had previously supplied.
22. 2002 report
23. Paragraph 10 of the First Defendant’s 30th June 2011 Application states that my complaint against ADL “was investigated”. I reject that assertion.
24. What took place and failed to take place in relation to this complaint led me to write several letters asking for assistance. They included:
- (1) I refer to page 3 of Exhibit KDR 4, my 13th March 2002 letter to the then Police Complaints Authority. In this I related events and the lack of progress in identifying the anonymous caller, and asked for help in identifying the caller because I was “living in a state of siege”. Stating my belief that ADL had made the anonymous phone calls, I wrote that it was “The only possible chance I have of proving it”. I detailed other forms of harassment I had been suffering from ADL over the previous weeks. I also quoted the comments from the First Defendant when I said that other residents had also complained to the First Defendant of suffering harassment from ADL: “nobody else has complained about him” and, to my saying “The man in flat 12 has complained” his reply was “The 71 year old man”. In this letter I also referred to 2 other residents who had complained to the First Defendant of suffering harassment from ADL. I copied the officer concerned on my letter. He never challenged me on its content.

The MPS' 22 July 2011 version

Dictionary definition of 'investigate':
“carry out a systematic or formal inquiry into (an incident or allegation) so as to establish the truth”

(2) I refer to page 7 of Exhibit KDR 4, my 2nd April 2002 letter to the First Defendant. In this I reported events with the above First Defendant’s officer, from 20th to 27th March 2002, including quoting him verbatim, as well as included my observations on what he had told me. (I highlight that the officer concerned did not challenge me on what I reported). This included:

- a. 20th March 2002 - the claim that the anonymous phone calls made from a mobile phone belonged to a resident, [Mrs \[X\]](#), and that “her phone was stolen in November. So, whoever stole it, made the calls”;
- b. 20th March 2002 - the suggestion, in relation to the calls made from a landline number, that “something must have gone wrong with [my] BT voicemail. It’s been calling your number by mistake”;
- c. 25th March 2002 - the First Defendant being aggressive to me on the phone when I explained that the reason I could not decide whether or not to prosecute [Mrs \[X\]](#) was because I did not have enough information;
- d. 25th March 2002 - the same officer phoning me c. 3.5 hours after the above phone call to tell me that [Mrs \[X\]](#) had admitted to making the calls to me, and that “She said she does not know why she has done it..”; that she had said that “her phone mysteriously reappeared at her door”; I sent a 25th March 2002 fax to the First Defendant. I refer to page 6 of Exhibit KDR 4. In this I captured what he told me, and asked him to confirm. He did not reply.

- e. 25th March 2002 - the officer telling me that [Mrs \[X\]](#) had complained to him of suffering harassment from ADL, and my reply to him: “So, there are five people now who have complained to the police about Andrew Ladsky: [Mrs \[X\]](#), myself, [Mr \[X\] in flat 12](#), [Mr \[X\] in flat 4](#), and, I believe, [Mrs \[X\]](#) who used to live in flat 5”, to which he responded: “We are talking about anonymous phone calls here”; my reply to that was: “Why are you so reticent when I mention Andrew Ladsky’s name?”;
- f. 26th March 2002 - my having contacted BT who refuted the First Defendant’s explanation that “something has gone wrong with [my] voicemail” and reiterated that the calls from a landline were made from a Reach Europe number – and stating that I had sent a 26th March 2002 fax to the First Defendant in which I reported my conversation with BT;
- g. 27th March 2002 - the First Defendant’s reply to my insisting that the Reach Europe subscriber be identified: “So, we are going to have to throw resources at this for just two phone calls? [Mrs \[X\]](#) has admitted to making the calls”; and then stating “You won’t be able to prove a link with Andrew Ladsky”. I perceived these comments as attempts to intimidate me and bully me into dropping my complaint.
- h. 28th March 2002 – the First Defendant’s claim that it had contacted Reach Europe and that “There isn’t a subscriber for the number. BT is wrong. Something must have gone wrong with their system. We'll contact BT again but, if they got the wrong number, we won't contact you again". On page 15 Letter A I wrote that the officer had no intention of contacting me "again" as, the previous day, 27th March 2002, he had entered on page 24 of the 2002 report: "This matter is complete".

- i. In Letter A and B (e.g. pages 12 and 14 of Letter A, and pages 25 and 27 of Letter B) I highlighted the fact that most of the above had not been captured in the 2002 report, and that the failure to do this undermined my credibility.
- (3) My 5th May 2002 letter to the Chair of the Metropolitan Police Authority. I refer to page 12 of Exhibit KDR 4. Heading my letter "Need for independent investigation of crime report BS 5604102/02C", I reported events and asked for assistance.

- (4) I refer to page 16 of Exhibit KDR 4, my 31st May 2002 chaser e-mail to the Metropolitan Police Authority. In this I report what the First Defendant's officer had told me on 23rd May 2002: that the 3 anonymous calls made to me from a landline number were made from a hotel near Jefferson House; his claim that, like the other 17 anonymous calls, they had been made by [Mrs \[X\]](#) and he therefore considered the matter "close". Highlighting the fact that this made it the third different explanation, which I listed, in this e-mail I stated my concern that the 3 calls had also been attributed to the resident, and reiterated my view that the calls were made by ADL. Top of my mind was the fact that in the 29th November 2002 claim, [Mrs \[X\]](#)'s share of the 'service charge' was £63,222. I refer to page 16 of Exhibit KDR 13. I referred to this on page 18 of Letter A, including stating that the Land Registry record for her flat had a "Caution in favour of Steel Services". (Because of this concern, I had agreed to [Mrs \[X\]](#) receiving a 'formal warning' from the First Defendant).

As I discussed under para.10 of my 29.08.11 Supplementary Witness Statement, the text the police had redacted in its July 2009 version of the 2002 report v its July 2011 version, provides undeniable support to my position that the police's story simply does not stack-up, and is evidently targeted at the brain-dead. (Under paras 7-9, I discussed evidence that making anonymous phone calls is one of Ladsky's standard tactics to anybody who 'dares' stand up to him. (...in the knowledge that he has the police and the courts to protect him))

- (5) As I reported on page 16 of Letter A, at the time of writing the above e-mail, I did not know about the officer's prior claim, captured on page 29 of the report: "The result from the last subscribers check has been received, the line is held by -131- This is the -132-133- the number being one of their outside lines. There is no way of tracing which telephone was used to make the three calls between 18h23 and 18h27 on 19/2/2" – as the officer had not communicated this to me. On page 13 of Letter A, I wrote that if there was "no way of tracing the phone used" then there could be no way of identifying the caller.
25. I also cite the following against the assertion contained under paragraph 10 of the First Defendant's Application that my complaint against ADL "was investigated":
- (1) On page 23 of the report, at 20th March 2002, (following redacted text) the entry reads that I stated "it is strange that -63- lives above her, (Mrs [X]) as if intimating that -84- had something to do with this offence despite the evidence pointing to someone else".
 - (2) Page 24 of the report, at 26th March 2002: "...in this case there was absolutely no evidence to link -104- (i.e. ADL) with this matter". As I stated on page 13 of Letter A "this conclusion was premature and is therefore false" as 2 months later, on 22nd May 2002, the First Defendant entered on page 29 of the report "There is no way of tracing which telephone was used to make the three calls between 18h23 and 18h27 on 19/2/2".
 - (3) On page 30 of the 2002 report, at 22nd May 2002, the First Defendant captured: "This matter is complete and the papers are now FOD' at BC"; on the same page, at 25th May 2002 "...I explained [to me] that as -147-137- had already been warned for making the calls before and after the three from the hotel, no further action would be taken against -138- and that was the end of the matter".

- (4) On page 26 of Letter B, I highlighted that the 2002 report does not state that the resident “admitted” to also making the calls from the nearby hotel.

26. I also object to other statements in the 2002 report because they undermine my credibility by stating incorrect information and by failing to record important events:

I was right, see the MPS' 22 July 2011 version of the 2002 "crime report"

More important evidence against the assertion “unknown”:
the fact the police ‘identified’ the Resident has having “made the calls” – I raised this under: (i) para.14 of my 29.08.11 Witness Statement; (ii) para.37\(3\) of my 17.10.11 Request

- (1) Page 13 describes the person who made the anonymous phone calls to me as “unknown”. On page 5 of Letter A, I wrote that this was not the case as I identified ADL when I made the complaint, and continued to do so in subsequent correspondence. I stated that I viewed this as undermining my credibility. To this I now add the assertion contained under paragraph 6 of the First Defendant’s Application that “all the details supplied must be recorded”. Why is it that what I supplied was not recorded?

- (2) Page 20 falsely states my (then) home telephone number as being one of the numbers from which the anonymous phone calls were made. I raised this issue on page 8 of Letter A, asking why no correction had been made.

- (3) Page 24 of the report states that I “still insisted that –102–101– is harassing her and other people living at Jefferson House –103– has not been the subject in any Cris reports...”. In my Letter A, I refer to 3 other parts of the 2002 report (pages 20, 21 and 24) that refer to my reporting suffering other forms of harassment from ADL, and for which I captured my comments on pages 9, 10 and 13 of Letter A.

- Elderly Resident
- Head Residents Association
- Other Residents
- Resident K

- Paras 5 & 6 of my 29.08.11 Witness Statement

(The above also applies to 26(5) on the next page)

- (4) In relation to my 2nd April 2002 letter to the First Defendant (I refer to page 7 of Exhibit KDR 4, on page 26 of the 2002 report, the First Defendant captured “In this she claims that a number of residents have made allegations of harassment against –117”. The rest of the entry is redacted.

(5) In its 23rd April 2002 letter to me (I refer page 10 of Exhibit KDR 4, the First Defendant wrote: “No crime report has been reported to this police borough regarding Mr Ladsky...”. I viewed this as undermining my credibility because, as I reported on pages 7 and 8 of Letter A, I had evidence of other residents suffering harassment from ADL – and of their having complained about it to the First Defendant. In support of this I supplied, among others, a copy of: (i) I refer to page 1 of Exhibit KDR 4, an identical 11th October 2001 letter from CKFT, solicitors, to [Mr & Mrs \[X\], flat 12](#), and to [Mr & Mrs \[X\], flat 14](#), stating that they had reported its client, ADL, to the police; (ii) I refer to page 5 Exhibit KDR 13, an 18th April 2002 e-mail to me from a resident, [Ms \[X\]](#), stating that Mrs [X], the person who was running the Residents Association, had reported suffering harassment from ADL to the police. According to Ms [X], Mrs [X] had apparently been told by the police to “fold her tent and go”. (I repeated my assertions on page 25 of Letter B).

The MPS' 22
July 2011
version

28. Contrary to paragraph 11 of the Application, the 2003 complaint did not relate to my website www.leasehold-outrage.com (which was first launched more than 3.5 years later, in September 2006). (I have already stated this under paragraph 7 of my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence).

29. I reject the assertion in paragraph 11 of the First Defendant's 30th June 2011 Application that “The First Defendant investigated this complaint”.

30. I first heard about the complaint from a 27th January 2003 letter to me from the First Defendant. I refer to page 1 of Exhibit KDR 6, stating: “The police have been informed by a Mr Andrew Ladsky that you verbally abused him in public over some sort of dispute revolving around your premises”. After referring to a witness, the officer states: “...I am aware I only have his side of the story, however, if events occurred as he described them, then an offence would appear to have been committed by you. Of perhaps greater importance is the fact that any further such outbursts may result in charges of harassment being made against you, as this initial complaint has been fully recorded by the police. I wish to make it clear that my role in this is purely neutral at the moment, but it would be remiss of me not to advise you of the following: Please avoid (if you can) any confrontation with Mr Ladsky or there may be further consequences. In addition, would it be possible for you to call the above telephone numbers to clarify this situation. Thank you for your time and I look forward to your reply". Below the name of the First Defendant's officer was written "Crime Investigator". On page 28 of the 2003 report this letter is simply described as "warning the suspect of this behaviour".

31. While I viewed the letter as an attempt to intimidate me, including signing it with "Crime Investigator", at the same time I laughed when visualising the scene: ADL standing in a police station saying: 'Mr Policeman, a woman swore at me', and at the First Defendant for having no sense of the ridicule. I also contrasted that with the 11th July 2002 letter to me from the Metropolitan Police Authority (I refer to page 17 of Exhibit KDR 4) which, on page 2, stated, in relation to my insisting that the landline caller be identified: "...you must appreciate that officers have to act with consideration for resource and time expenditure...". I opted to not reply to the 27th January 2003 letter.
32. The letter was followed by a chaser letter from the First Defendant, dated 6th February 2003, asking me to phone (I refer to page 2 of Exhibit KDR 6). Having learnt from my experience with the First Defendant in 2002, I decided that the only contact I would have with the police would be in writing. I therefore sent an 11th February 2003 letter I posted 'recorded delivery' on that day (I refer to page 3 of Exhibit KDR 6 in which I asked for "precise detail – in writing – of the accusation against me". I did not receive a reply.
33. As evidenced by the detail contained at the beginning of this Witness Statement, the report was processed as a "Substantiated Offence of harassment" 2 days before writing the above letter, and therefore, before contacting me. In this context, I quote from page 1 of the 11th July 2002 letter to me from the Metropolitan Police Authority (I refer to page 17 of Exhibit KDR 4): "the police...must only act on the basis of established facts".

34. Page 25 of the report states, after some redacted text: “the suspect was walking out of her flat and shouted ‘Go fuck yourself’”. (As I noted on page 17 of Letter A, and page 23 of Letter B), the First Defendant failed to establish from ADL what had led me to say this to him. My comment was a retort to ADL provoking me by saying to me: “Better luck next time!”, followed by a sarcastic laugh. I concluded that he was referring to the impending London Leasehold Valuation Tribunal hearing on 5th February 2003 – and that, in light of his comment, had ensured that it would be ‘sewn-up’. Three weeks earlier, as I was coming out of my flat, ADL was standing by the door. On seeing me he told me, with a lot of venom in his voice: “I am going to get you this year”. I concluded that this complaint was the start of his vendetta.
35. Page 25, after some redacted text, states: “The suspect say ‘Go fuck yourself to the victim when she sees approx 3 or 4 times...This verbal abuse started in November 2002’”. I wrote on pages 18 and 19 of the Letter A that: it was not true that I had done this previously; viewed this as being motivated by an intention to make an offence of harassment ‘stick’ against me; this false accusation conveys a misleading and detrimental perception of me.
36. Concurrently with making the complaint against me to the First Defendant, ADL had also approached CKFT, solicitors, as I received a threatening letter, dated 4th February 2003. I refer to page 19 of Exhibit KDR 13. It stated that it was writing on behalf of Steel Services, and described ADL as a “tenant”. In this it, among others, repeated the same accusations as told to the First Defendant.
37. In accepting the accusation from ADL, the First Defendant failed to refer back to the 2002 report in which it captured, on pages 16, 20 and 21 the instances of harassment I reported suffering from ADL, as well as his replies on the occasions when I confronted him: “mind your own business”; “get lost!”. It also failed to refer to page 24 of the said report: “Ms Rawé is still insisting that -102-101- is harassing her and other people living at Jefferson House”.

38. Page 25 of the report states: “Letters from the Managing Agents for a service charge to the flats. This letter has been sent to all the residents to pay for this refurbishment”. On pages 18 and 19 of Letter A, I noted that no detail is provided about this letter, nor about the subsequent events. Posing as just ‘a resident’, ADL would, like all the other leaseholders, have been ‘up in arms’ at the 15th July 2002 letter from the managing agents, as it demanded payment of the global sum of £736,000 (I refer to page 6 of Exhibit KDR 13 - and was doing this without providing any detailed costing in support. (It led ‘Steel Services’ to, 3 weeks later, file a 7th August 2002 Application in the London Leasehold Valuation Tribunal).
39. Pages 25 and 26 of the 2003 report state that I “wrote letters accusing the victim of theft. These letters went to the Leasehold Evaluation Tribunal and then got forwarded on to all the tenants in the flat hence, how the victim got hold of his”. I strongly object to that. On pages 19 and 20 of Letter A, I wrote that it was not true that I accused ADL of theft and supplied the correspondence referred to:
- (1) I refer to page 12 of Exhibit KDR 4, my 24th October 2002 fax to Kensington & Chelsea Housing following this department being informed by the managing agents that Steel Services ‘was’ domiciled in the British Virgin Islands (it was not correct as it had been “struck-off the British Virgin Islands’ register”); in this fax I quoted from the British Virgin Islands website, the benefits of being domiciled in its jurisdiction: “Protection of assets from expropriation or confiscation orders from foreign governments” and followed this by stating, in brackets: “Hence, they could siphon-off – at this stage - £750,000+ from Jefferson House residents and make it disappear”.
 - (2) I refer to page 20 of Exhibit KDR 4, my 24th October 2002 fax to the London Leasehold Valuation Tribunal on which I copied the above fax, and wrote “...at least some of the flats are owned by people connected with the headlease – namely, Andrew Ladsky...”.

- (3) As to the statement on page 26 of the 2003 report “how the victim got hold of this”: ADL got hold of it because he, under the headlessor name of ‘Steel Services’, filed the 7th August 2002 Application to the London Leasehold Valuation Tribunal.
40. Somebody turns up in a police station and reports being accused of theft, and the First Defendant does not ask for evidence in support? I was angry at being falsely accused of having falsely stated that somebody had committed a theft. I would never say such thing unless I was absolutely sure of it and could back it up with ‘black on white’ evidence.
41. 2 months before making his complaint to the First Defendant, ADL had asked his solicitors, CKFT, to send me a threatening 28th November 2002 letter in which it accused me of the same thing in relation to the above faxes, and demanded that I pay “substantial damages to Mr Ladsky”. I refer to page 13 of Exhibit KDR 13. I ignored the diktats. There was no follow-up.
42. Determined to clear my name, including against the other false, malicious accusations against me, not only in this report, but also in the 2007 report, on page 20 of Letter A (which I repeated on page 9 of Letter B), I wrote “As it turned out, ‘SS’ did steal c.£500,000 from the leaseholders”. In support of my statement, in addition to providing detailed explanations, I supplied several documents, e.g.:
- (1) I refer to page 16 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 29th November 2002 West London County Court claim filed against me \(and 13 other flats at Jefferson House).
 - (2) I refer to page 36 of Exhibit KDR 13, the Institute of Chartered Accountants for England and Wales’ reply of 29th August 2006 to my complaint against Pridie Brewster, accountants for Jefferson House, which includes a ‘Summary of contributions to the major works fund’ at 2002 and 2003, and my analysis of the sums paid by the Jefferson House leaseholders, based on the 29th August 2006 reply. The last 3 pages of the pack are the ‘Apportionments’ supplied by the managing agents,

It also sent a 28.11.02 letter to my then employer, KPMG

Martin Russell Jones, in the context of the 24th June 2003 case management hearing, and 26th August 2003 hearing.

- (3) I refer to page 21 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 4th March 2003 letter supplied to the London Leasehold Valuation Tribunal, from Martin Russell Jones, managing agents for Jefferson House, to Brian Gale, ADL's surveyor which, on page 1, paragraph 19, states that the construction of a penthouse flat was "not a viable proposition".
- (4) I refer to page 35 of Exhibit KDR 13, the photographs I took, in July 2002 and September 2005, of the back of Jefferson House, showing that a penthouse flat had been added.
- (5) To stress the kind of people I am dealing with, I also supplied other evidence of another fraudulent claim against me by "Steel Services, Rootstock Overseas Corp" in 2007: (i) I refer to page 50 of Exhibit KDR 13, a 16th February 2007 letter from ADL's solicitors, Portner and Jaskel, threatening me with "bankruptcy, forfeiture of my flat and costs" unless I paid immediately the sum of £8,937 to "Rootstock Overseas Corp" – a company I had never heard of; (ii) I refer to page 52 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 27th February 2007 West London County Court claim filed against me, and my reproduction of sums claimed, on a yearly basis; (iii) I refer to page 59 of Exhibit KDR 13, the 6th June 2008 Notice of Discontinuance of "ALL" of the claim against me.
- (6) Since then, the fraudulent demands have continued. Currently, it stands at a totally unsupported demand of £28,000 which first started as an equally unsupported "Brought forward balance" of £24,000 in an invoice dated 9th July 2010. I refer to page 61 of Exhibit KDR 13. It is fraud because, as a 6th June 2008 Notice of Discontinuance of "All" of the 2007 claim against me was issued, which included all charges to year-end 2006 (I refer to page 59 of Exhibit KDR 13), it means that for the 3.5 years to the 9th July 2010 invoice, my average service charge would be £6,857 per annum. In 2004, before the addition of a penthouse flat that is c.7 times the size of my flat and of 3 others flats, and before the complete refurbishment of the block, the annual demand from me was £1,750. I refer to page 62 of Exhibit KDR 13. (They have ignored all my repeated demands for evidence).

43. Page 28 of the 2003 report states: “06/02/2003”: “Have attended address nrrk have left note for susp to call me”. I wrote on page 23 of Letter A “I never found “a note” from PC Watson at my flat”.

44. Also on page 28, under “12/02/2003” the entry states: “OIC has attempted to make contact with the suspect but this has been fruitless”. This entry is false as, on that day, the First Defendant would have received my ‘recorded delivery’ letter of 11th February 2003. The report was closed on that day.

45. It was clear to me from the report that the First Defendant had not probed ADL on any of his accusations against me and opinions of me and, by implication, had not asked to see any supporting evidence. Hence, I maintain that the First Defendant did not “investigate” the complaint. I also maintain that I was denied the opportunity to, plagiarising from the First Defendant’s letter of 27th January 2003, “give my side of the story”.

The MPS’
22 July 2011
version

47. At a minimum, this report falsely accuses me of having committed a “racist” offence. As discussed below, this accusation was also stated in an e-mail from the First Defendant.

Dictionary definition of ‘investigate’:
“carry out a systematic or formal inquiry into (an incident or allegation) so as to establish the truth”

48. I reject the assertion that the First Defendant “investigated the 2007 complaint”, as claimed under paragraph 13 of its 30th June 2011 Application, and paragraph 9 of the First Defendant’s Defence.

49. The first I heard about the complaint was from my website Host who forwarded me a 16th March 2007 e-mail it had received from the First Defendant. I refer to page 1 of Exhibit KDR 8. Following on from the subject line, titled “Website with anti semitic (sic) views” it stated: “http://www.leasehold-outrage.com. Hi the above site contains some inappropriate use of the words “pigs and monkeys” which are racially abusive terms towards Jewish people from the Nazi's. This is directed at a particular person. I am the police officer dealing with this crime. I would therefore be grateful if this site could be taken down". In relation to this e-mail, page 26 of the 2007 report states: "I have contacted the -121- to have the site shut down and await a response".

50. I was in shock, as these were false, malicious, vicious accusations, and an attack on my name, character and reputation. I was also mortified that this e-mail from the British police, accusing me of having 'committed a crime', had been sent to my website Host. How would my Host, so far away, react to this e-mail? What were going to be the consequences of this e-mail? I felt extremely anxious and distressed. I immediately engaged in communication with my Host to say that these accusations were false. We agreed that, considering the style of the e-mail, and the fact that the First Defendant had not supplied any evidence in support of its accusations, the objective was to scare my website Host into closing down my website.
51. I nonetheless spent several hours reviewing my entire website and reported to the legal department of my website Host that, to the best of my knowledge, I simply could not see how the accusations could be substantiated. I believe that my website Host's legal department did some checking at its end. The outcome was that the legal department of my website Host replied to the First Defendant by asking: "Are you aware that there are laws against making false accusations?". This reply from my website Host has not been captured in the 2007 report.
52. This led to an e-mail reply from the First Defendant, dated 20th March 2007. I refer to page 2 of Exhibit KDR 8. Still using the same title in the subject line, as it had done for its 16th March 2007 e-mail: "Website with anti semitic (sic) views", the e-mail stated: "Thanks for your reply, yes there are laws relating to false reporting. The producer of this website is franco-german (sic) in origin and so would be aware of the terms pigs and monkeys used during the Nazi regime to refer to Jewish people. Obviously the victim we have has picked up on this as he is Jewish. If you are unable to close the site down I - will let the victim know as there is nothing we as a police force can do except class it as a racist incident. Could you let me know who deals with any complaints about websites in the US and I'll pass this on to the victim. Many thanks*". This reply to my website Host has not been captured in the report.

53. While the First Defendant had backed down on its previous accusation that I had 'committed a crime' (by stating "I am the police officer dealing with this crime"), it was still accusing me of having committed a "racist" act - and still not providing any evidence in support (as I noted on page 31 of Letter A). I again quote from page 1 of the 11th July 2002 letter to me from the Metropolitan Police Authority (I refer to page 17 of Exhibit KDR 4): "the police...must only act on the basis of established facts".
54. My website Host and I also noted the last sentence in the e-mail, which we viewed as another attempt to scare my Host into closing down my website.
55. I viewed the use by the First Defendant of my being of Franco-German origin given as reason to falsely accuse me of "using terms used by the Nazis" as amounting to branding me "a Nazi" (as I wrote on page 36 of Letter A). And this was sent to my website Host. In addition to being mortified, I was very distraught by this sick, highly vicious, malicious, defamatory accusation.
56. In light of the above, I totally reject the assertions made under paragraph 12 of the 30th June 2011 Application that the First Defendant "made inquiries to the Claimant's website host", and that "he did not suggest that the Claimant was guilty of the alleged conduct". The purpose of the e-mails was to scare my website Host into closing down my website – and the comments captured on page 26 of the 2007 report: "I have contacted the -121- to have the site shut down and await a response"; "I am still trying to get the website closed down" are proof of this.
57. I viewed this complaint as revenge by ADL who was piling on one attack on top of another: (i) one month previously, the threat of bankruptcy proceedings and forfeiture of my flat in the 16th February 2007 letter. I refer to page 50 of Exhibit KDR 13; (ii) the 27th February 2007 claim. I refer to page 52 of Exhibit KDR 13. And when he failed to get my website closed down following the above e-mails, he then attacked me by sending a 26th March 2007 letter to my then employer (I refer to page 3 of Exhibit KDR 8) in which he repeated a number of his accusations, and added others, as well as stated: “The matter has been reported to the police who confirm they are dealing with a racist incident and are in contact with the ISP hosting the offending site”. This letter led to very serious consequences for me at work. I refer to page 5 of Exhibit KDR 14, my 10th April 2008 letter to my doctor.

Dictionary definition of ‘investigate’: “carry out a systematic or formal inquiry into (an incident or allegation) so as to establish the truth”

58. I repeat that I totally reject the First Defendant’s assertion under paragraph 13 of its Application that it “investigated” the complaint by ADL as it never contacted me, the owner and author of the website - at any point in time. It did not provide any evidence in support of its accusations.
59. As evidenced by my experience with the First Defendant in October 2010 (discussed later on), it refused my written evidence of being harassed, with photographs in support, and endorsed with a Statement of Truth - claiming that it was “insufficient evidence”. If my evidence was insufficient, why did the First Defendant accept ADL’s accusations against me and opinions of me in the 2003 report (as discussed above) and in the 2007 report (as further discussed below) without any evidence in support – and then act on them?
60. (As to the reasons I did not challenge the First Defendant at the time: (i) because of my experience in relation to the 2002 and 2003 complaints; (ii) because of the co-ordinated attacks by ADL, as detailed above, that had put me in a situation of having to fight on other fronts simultaneously; (iii) because I was very shaken up by all the events, to the extent that, by mid April 2007, I saw my doctor and was prescribed tranquilisers and anti-depressants. I refer to page 5 of Exhibit KDR 13. By then, I had been in tears, at my desk, in the office, sobbing uncontrollably, practically every day over the previous 2 weeks – leading me on several days to take the rest of the day off). (In April 2008, my GP claimed to have no record of my visit – leading me to write the above letter)

61. Paragraph 9 of the Application states that I created my website www.leasehold-outrage.com “As a result of my dispute with Mr Ladsky since 2002”. This is a repeat of what is contained on page 22 of the 2007 report, which states “A web site www.leasehold-outrage.com was created in July 2002 (rectified on page 26 to ‘2006’) in response to a large service charge which she regarded as excessive and unfair”. On page 26 of Letter A, I wrote that it was not true and stated: “Recording of this - false - information impacts on me as it is part of the objective of portraying me in a negative light”. I included extracts from the then home page to my website.
62. Of importance: as stated on page 23 of 2007 report, the First Defendant “looked at my website”, and in fact, as detailed on page 26 of the report, having done this, decided to contact social services because “I believe she may have some mental issues”. As the First Defendant “looked at” my website, it would have been aware of the reasons for my launching the website, and would have seen all the ‘black on white’ evidence of what had happened to me: the 2002 fraudulent service charge demand and claim; the numerous instances of harassment I had reported suffering, etc. Hence, in relation to the accusations and opinions from ADL and from the First Defendant, discussed below, it would have also known from my website that these accusations and opinions were false.
63. To emphasise that the accusations against me are false and malicious, I give the reasons for the launch of my website – and stress that this evidence was on my website at the time of the 2007 complaint. The root cause was that: (i) following a 29th November 2002 claim against me for £14,400 (and 13 other flats) (I refer to page 16 of Exhibit KDR 13), through CKFT, solicitors, Steel Services made me an offer dated 21st October 2003 for £6,350 (I refer to page 26 of Exhibit KDR 13), which I accepted and paid; (ii) three months after the Consent Order was endorsed by Wandsworth County Court (I refer to page 29 of Exhibit KDR 13), ADL had the managing agents send me another invoice, dated 21st October 2004 for £14,400 (I refer to page 23 of Exhibit KDR 13). Hence, the same amount as the original demand, and therefore as though no offer had been made, accepted, paid and endorsed by the Court. It was

Summary of my complaints: My Diary 6 May 2008

- followed by a 16th November 2004 invoice, repeating the demand (I refer to page 24 of Exhibit KDR 13). I opted to file a complaint against ADL' solicitors, managing agents, etc. These complaints entailed battling for 2 years. (All were reported on my website in March 2007). As my battles proved to be in vain, I launched my website in September 2006 in the hope that it would put pressure on resolving my situation which, by then, had been going on for 5 years. It did not.
64. The 21st October 2003 offer was triggered by the outcome of the 2003 London Leasehold Valuation Tribunal hearings: based on my RICS Chartered surveyor's assessment (as the LVT failed to include a summary of the impact of the findings on the global sum demanded), the outcome of the 2003 hearings was a reduction of c. £500,000 of the global sum demanded. This included c. £144,000 said to be in the contingency fund at the time (which the Tribunal was of the view should be used against the 'demand' - as stated under point 62 of its 17th June 2003 report, ref. LVT/SC/007/120/02).
65. In the context of the 21st October 2003 offer, (in addition to the 29th November 2002 claim), I highlight the fact that CKFT, solicitors, had sent me a 7th October 2002 letter, on behalf of Steel Services (I refer to page 10 of Exhibit KDR 13) in which it threatened me with "forfeiture, costs, and contacting my mortgage lender if [I] failed to pay immediately the sum of £16,657" (which included £14,400 for 'the major works'). Likewise, this letter was on my website at the time of 2007 complaint – and discussed.
66. As to the comment on page 22 of the report "which she regarded as excessive and unfair". On pages 26 and 27 of Letter A (which I repeated to some extent on page 24 of Letter B), I provided detailed evidence that the 'service charge' most definitely met the criteria of being "excessive" and "unfair".
67. In the process of accepting the above comments from ADL in 2007, the First Defendant did not refer back to Page 21 of the 2002 report, which states: "Ms Rawé continues to make allegations against -75- claiming he is harassing her because she is complaining about over charging of excessive maintenance costs. She believes that a deception is being practised surrounding these costs”

68. Page 19 of the 2007 report states: “A web page has been created which is alleged to contain anti-Semitic, anti-black, anti-Asian pictures and text”. I strongly object to this because it is not true. I wrote on page 25 of Letter A: “These are false claims; where is the evidence to support these claims?” I also stated that it was the first time that I was made aware of the false accusation that my website contained “Anti-black and anti-Asian pictures and text”. I repeated my denial on page 10 of Letter B, adding that “they are therefore unlawful, scurrilous, malicious accusations against me intended to defame my name, character and reputation”.
69. Page 22 of the 2007 report states: “In order to challenge this charge it actually cost a considerably larger sum of money than she saved. Since this she has been extremely upset and is seeking compensation and retribution for her time, money and effort”. On page 29 of Letter A, I denied the second sentence. I object to this strongly. In spite of being unable to recoup my costs (due to the Tribunal’s policy) - as per my rights - I nonetheless challenged Steel Services’ 7th August 2002 application to the Tribunal, because I wanted to draw a line under the demand once and for all, and then move on. The reality is that ADL did not expect me to do this because of my limited financial means.
70. Page 22 of the 2007 report states: “...there are parts of the www.leasehold-outrage.com site which are alleged to be extremely upsetting and insulting. There are a number of sections which are alleged to of (sic) a racial nature and numerous references by name to the victim...”. I object to this strongly. On pages 29 and 30 of Letter A, I noted that ADL did not provide any evidence to substantiate his claims, and that, consequently, these claims must be treated as false. I repeated this on page 11 of Letter B, and stated that they were “malicious, scurrilous, trumped-up accusations”.
71. Page 22 of the report states: “The sections of the web site that the complaint relates to is headed “My Diary” 2002-2007. The specific racist remarks and pictures that are being complained about are contained throughout...” I object to this strongly because it is not true. On page 30 of Letter A, I noted that, likewise, ADL did not provide any evidence to substantiate his claims, and that, consequently, these claims must be treated as false. The same applies to the First Defendant that asserts that “The specific racist remarks and pictures... are contained throughout” – without providing any evidence.

72. Page 22 of the report states: “...although it appears to be becoming quite paranoid. She thinks the police may be following her as well as numerous people employed by her enemies”. On page 30 of Letter A, I asked: “On what basis does PC K O’Brien considers himself entitled to make this ‘assessment’ about me? This statement is libellous”. On page 15 of Letter B, I wrote: “This ‘expression of opinion’ about me is malicious, scurrilous and libellous as I have evidence to support my claims that I am under surveillance – to which a lot more has been added since”.

73. Page 25 of the report states: “Looking at the website it seems the suspect thinks she is being followed by either the police or -77-78. This is not the case and she is obviously extremely paranoid.” On page 33 of Letter A, I asked: “On what basis does TDC Simon J Dowling, of the ‘Community Support Unit’, consider himself entitled to make this categorical ‘assessment’ about me?”; “How does he know that “This is not the case” that I am “being followed”? As he claimed to have “looked at the website” he would have seen that I have evidence to support my claim, including witnesses (claim for which, at the date of writing, I have since accumulated more supporting evidence)”.

74. Page 25 of the report states: “About four years ago –75– organised for refurbishments on the flats. Each household was to pay a certain amount of costs through their service charge. The suspect took exception to this and went to a tribunal to get this charge reduced”. On page 24 of Letter B, I referred to my right to challenge Steel Services, and added that the statement “conjures up a negative perception of me”. On page 32 of Letter A, I wrote “The suspect took exception to this” has a connotation that I am a troublemaker, somebody who automatically challenges any demand for payment” – and provided references to my feedback to the 2002 and 2003 reports, stating: “which refutes the implied comments about me”.

to the Home Office

75. Contrary to what is implied, I was far from being the ‘only objector’ as the 29th November 2002 claim filed in West London County Court (I refer to page 16 of Exhibit KDR 13) was filed against me - and 13 other flats.
76. Page 25 of the 2007 report states: “Despite the values of the flats going up a considerable amount the suspect is still obviously not happy with what –75– initiated”. I resent the implication by the First Defendant that I should have turned a blind eye to the fraudulent demand. This is not my value system.
77. Page 25 of the report states: “-72- and -73- has informed me that the mention of Pigs and Monkeys relates to the words the Nazi’s used referring to Jewish people during the holocaust. This is obviously offensive -74– and believes this is what the suspect is referring to...”. On page 31 of Letter A, I wrote that I had never heard of this, and that it was totally untrue that I used the terms to refer to Jewish people. I asked for evidence of this. I provided the dictionary definition of both words, making it obvious that I had not – even though it could be seen from the context in which I used them. I was extremely sickened by these accusations by the First Defendant. I would never do such a thing. I also noted “and believes this is what the suspect is referring to”. Instead of the First Defendant making assumptions, why did not it ask me?
78. Pages 25 and 26 of the report states: “There is a lot of slanderous comments on the site mainly directed at –79– but also at K&C Police and even MPs, the Prime Minister and DPM. Also against solicitors and many others”. On page 33 of Letter A, I pointed out that there is no recording on my website. Hence, use of “slanderous” is incorrect. I also stated that “All of these claims are false”. I also asked what evidence the First Defendant had in relation to each of its categorical accusations, and stated that, as none is provided, these claims are false and libellous.

79. Following redacted text, page 26 of the report states: “I believe she may have some mental issues so will be speaking to social services to see if they are aware of her”. As I wrote on page 17 of Letter B, I was absolutely incensed when I read that, and stated that I viewed this as being motivated by revenge. On page 34 of Letter A, I wrote: “It is absolutely outrageous. On what basis does TDC Simon J Dowling, of the ‘Community Support Unit’, consider himself entitled to make this ‘assessment’ against me? This statement is highly libellous”. As the First Defendant has ignored my request for the contact detail of social services, I am extremely worried about the information held about me by social services, and wonder what damage it has / will cause me in future.
80. Page 26 of the report states: “There is a previous CRIS 5602261/03 which relates to an harassment of –64– by Ms Rawé no further action was taken at the time. But it shows Ms Rawé used to swear at –85– when seeing –86– in the communal area. This was when the service charge dispute first arose”. In spite of the fact that the 2003 report states that I have been “Eliminated”, this false accusation has been ‘recycled’ by the First Defendant and, in the process, it has fully endorsed it. On page 34 of Letter A, I noted that the assertion by the First Defendant is false.
81. On page 26, after some redacted text, the report states: “I am still trying to get the website closed down”. I commented on that on page 35 of Letter A.
82. Contrary to the First Defendant’s assertion under paragraph 6 of its 30th June 2011 Application that “the mere fact that an allegation is recorded on the CRIS does not mean that the allegation is treated as being true”, the above undeniably demonstrates the paramount importance of my ensuring that – as per my rights - the data it holds about me is accurate, fair, lawful and adequate – as it very clearly ignores the final classification of its reports. And the First Defendant’s officer’s comment on 17th October 2010 when I visited Kensington police: “We have to keep information in case you commit an offence and end-up in court”, adds a lot of weight to my worry.

83. Page 26 of the 2007 report states: “Advised by DS – 91 – at the Racial crime Directorate at NSY that there is no crime made out and therefore this should be classed as a racial incident and nothing more”. As discussed at the beginning of this section on the 2007 report, this accusation is also contained in the First Defendant’s e-mail of 20th March 2007 to my website Host. I strongly object to this because it is not true. As I asked on page 35 of Letter A: “Why “should” it “be classed as a racial incident”? Where is the evidence that I have committed a “racist act”?” To this day, the First Defendant has not provided any evidence in support of this accusation.

84. Contrary to what is stated on page 13 of the 2007 report, that I was “notified” that I had been “eliminated” by “PS 81BS G Latham”: I was not. I repeat, the First Defendant never contacted me at any point in time. I note that the report does not state a date on which this contact is meant to have taken place. The only contact I had about being “eliminated” was through the Head of Security of my then employer, who, 5 weeks after the First Defendant’s last contact with my website Host phoned me to say “The police is not going to pursue it. Isn’t that good news?” (This is captured on page 37 of Letter A, and page 18 of Letter B).

85. As highlighted throughout the above, the 3 reports are extensively redacted. I do not know whether the First Defendant is justified in doing this. In light of: (i) the data it has provided me with to date; (ii) the way I have since been treated by the First Defendant, including not being provided with the name of recipients to whom it has supplied data about me, such as social services - I am extremely worried as to what the First Defendant has kept from me. In this context, I highlight the reaction from 2 of the First Defendant’s officers when I visited Kensington police on 16th October 2010. This is discussed below, under Kensington & Chelsea police – October 2010.

In my 28th May 2009 Subject Access Request, I asked a number of questions relating to actions / omissions in relation to each of the 3 reports. As a result of receiving the 3 reports, in Letter A (which I repeated in Letter B) I asked some additional questions. This included being provided with the contact

- Note my repeating that “the reports are extensively redacted”
- Under para.10 of the Particulars I stated my doubt that the police had complied with my DPA rights when supplying its July 2009 version of the “crime reports”.
As evidenced by its July 2011 version, I was proven right that it had lied in:
(i) its 25.08.09 letter;
(ii) paras 25 & 12 of its Defence; (iii) para.15 of its Application
- I reported this under para.13 of my 17.10.11 Request

As evidenced by the version of the "crime reports" the MPS supplied me on 22 July 2011: it was A LIE details for social services which the First Defendant approached in 2007, so that I could submit a Subject Access Request. The First Defendant has claimed in its 25th August 2009 reply (I refer to Exhibit KDR 9 that "there is no further information we can provide you with").

87. The First Defendant's Public Access Office did not respond to Letter B i.e. my 20th September 2009 letter.
88. I was livid by the content of the reports and by the dismissive response in the above 25th August 2009 letter. With the aim of ensuring the enforcement of my rights, I sent Letter B i.e. 20th September 2009 to the First Defendant's Public Access Office, on which I also spent many hours as, among others, I cross-referenced it to Letter A. I also sent a 20th September 2009 letter to the First Defendant (I refer to Exhibit 2 of my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence). I headed my letter with "Kensington & Chelsea police is not exempt from compliance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998". I listed my reasons in support of the header, and concluded with: "As the above are very clearly in breach of, among others, the Police Professional Standards, as Head of K&C police: what are you going to do in the face of this litany of outrageous, gross misconduct?". Further adding to my costs, I supplied copies of all the correspondence exchanged with the First Defendant's Public Access Office.
89. I perceived what followed as being a continuation of the utter contempt, of my being treated like a piece of dirt, a non-entity who does not have the right to have rights.
90. The First Defendant replied in its 22nd September 2009 letter (I refer to Exhibit KDR 11 that I had "quite clearly expressed [my] concerns about accuracy to the MPS", and that if I was "dissatisfied with the MPS response [I] should contact the Information Commissioner". I viewed this as a continuation of being told to 'get lost', and an attempt to make me continue going on the 'treadmill'. I knew I had the right under the DPA to ask the First Defendant to stop processing data about me that is inaccurate and detrimental to me – and a source of great distress – and that I could do this at any time. I

- also knew that the Act does not impose a requirement on a data subject to go through the Information Commissioner in order to do this.
91. I replied on 8th October 2009 (I refer to Exhibit KDR 11 challenging the First Defendant's officer's reply in light of his role as Head of Professional Standards for the local police, and highlighted that he had ignored everything in my 13th August 2009 (Letter A) and 20th September 2009 (Letter B) correspondence – in spite of stating that I had “quite clearly expressed [my] concerns”. This dismissal of my rights led me to send an 8th October 2009 letter to his Chief Superintendent (I refer to Exhibit KDR 11), headed: “Do you endorse the treatment I have and continue to be subjected to by Kensington & Chelsea police?”
92. I saw the lack of response as a continuation of the contemptuous and discriminatory treatment. It led me to send a chaser letter to both of the above, dated 11th November 2009 (I refer to Exhibit KDR 11).
93. It led to a 17th November 2009 letter from the First Defendant (I refer to Exhibit KDR 11, that the officer who had sent the 22nd September 2009 would “write again to outline the previous advice given”. He did this by letter dated 20th November 2009 (I refer to Exhibit KDR 11). In this letter, he dismissed my conclusions in my above 20th September 2009 letter, about the officers who were involved in the 3 complaints. I was extremely shocked that a Head of Professional Standards claimed to not see anything wrong with what had been happening.
94. Absolutely determined to get my rights enforced and clear my name, I resorted to sending a ‘cry for help’ to the First and Third Defendants, dated 28th November 2009. I refer to Exhibit 1 of my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence. I did this thinking: surely, the Head of the Metropolitan Police is going to take action when I tell him about my experience; surely he will see that my demands are legitimate; surely the Head of the umbrella organisation, the Home Office, will say: something has been going on there for a very long time; it must be addressed. To this effect, in this letter I provided an overview of my experience with Kensington,

- Chelsea and Notting police in 2002, 2003, 2007, as well as reported my experience since submitting my 28th May 2009 Subject Access Request. To prove that I was not making it up, I supported my letter, to each of them, with 11 enclosures, amounting to 100 pages. Hence: another costly letter.
95. As, by then, I had not received the above 20th November 2009 letter, I sent another letter, dated 2nd December 2009, to the First and Third Defendants. I refer to Exhibit 3 of my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence. I headed my letter "Head of Kensington Police approves of illegal conduct by some of its officers". In this letter, I reproduced the 20th November 2009 letter from the Head of Professional Standards for my local police, from which I drew a list of conclusions in relation to the 3 "crime reports".
96. It led to an 8th December 2009 letter from the First Defendant's Directorate of Professional Standards. I refer to Exhibit 4 of my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence. What I viewed as a demonstration of contempt, was the fact that the letter was posted one week later. It stated that it was "identifying the most appropriate person to deal with the issue(s) you have raised. We will then send you the contact details of the person dealing with your complaint".
97. I took delivery of the letter on 24th December, and replied by letter dated 28th December 2009. I refer to Exhibit KDR 11. As required, in this letter, I provided my contact number.
98. By February 2010, I had not been contacted by the First Defendant's Directorate of Professional Standards. I was beyond myself with anger, frustration and despair at the way I continued to be treated. What on earth did I need to do to get my rights enforced? I sent a 2nd February 2010 letter to the First and Third Defendants. I refer to Exhibit 4 of my Reply to the First Defendant's Defence. I also addressed my letter to other parties who had subjected me to similar treatment. I headed my letter: "When am I due to be killed?", referring to the 15th June 2009 death threat I had mentioned on page 8, line 11 of my 28th November 2009 letter to the First and Third Defendants ("Enjoy your life. You don't have long to live"). I refer to Exhibit 1 of my Reply to the First Defendant's Defence.

99. On 4th February 2010, day on which my above letter was delivered to the First Defendant, its Directorate of Professional Standards posted a letter to me, dated 21st January 2010. I refer to Exhibit JC/3. The letter stated that it was applying to the Second Defendant for "dispensation because [I] made [my] complaint more than 12 months after the alleged misconduct without good reason; that your complaint has been made only because you have been unable to obtain the result that you desire through the Public Access Office". I could not believe my eyes: this central department, with responsibility for 'professional standards' was endorsing the conduct at local level.

100. I replied by letter dated 18th February 2010. I refer to Exhibit JC/3. In this letter I included extracts from various correspondences and wrote: "As evidenced by the above, your assessment is incorrect... Where, in the Data Protection Act 1998, does it specify a time limit for a data subject to seek – and obtain – an end to the processing of data that is false, unlawful, misleading, scurrilous, libellous, biased, corrupted, incomplete in some very significant aspects – as well as obtain correction of the data to ensure that it is "fair, lawful and accurate"?". I copied my letter to the Second Defendant. I refer to Exhibit JC/3.

101. The day after it received my above letter, the Second Defendant sent me a letter dated 22nd February 2010. I refer to Exhibit JC/2. In this letter, it gave me a 7-day deadline for reply, failing which it would grant the request for dispensation to the First Defendant. It demanded that I "provide good reasons for the delay in making your complaint", followed by "We will then consider the application taking your reasons into account".

102. As far as I was concerned, not only had I already provided my reasons, I had kept repeating them in my documents to the First Defendant, and had endlessly highlighted my rights under the DPA, including repeating that I could exert my right – at any time. I had even highlighted the latter in my 18th February 2011 letter on which I copied the Second Defendant. The Second

Police \(Complaints and Misconduct\) Regulations 2004 states under Reg.3(1) and (2)(a) that for the purposes of para.7 of Sch.3 of the Police Reform Act 2002, dispensation relates to "complaints where more than 12 months have elapsed between the incident, or the latest incident, and no good reason has been provided, or that the delay would likely cause injustice"

Defendant would have known about my reasons, as well as my rights under the DPA as, under its stated policy, the First Defendant would have provided the Second Defendant with these documents in the context of its Application for Dispensation.

103. The letter also stated: “If you do provide a sound explanation for the delay I should make you aware that I am also considering the dispensation on the grounds of ‘abuse of process’, (that the complaints procedures does not exist in order for crime reports to be amended – there being another, more appropriate remedy in the form of the Information Commissioner)...”.
104. I could not believe the content of the letter. How could my exerting my rights under the DPA amount to “an abuse of process”?
105. (As in the case of an important correspondence from a member of my family), the Second Defendant’s letter of 22nd February 2010 was intercepted and only delivered to my PO Box once the Second Defendant’s deadline for reply had passed. However, I did not reply, because I concluded that if the Second Defendant could not see “my reasons” - as well as my rights - from all the documents with which it would have been supplied by the First Defendant - then there was nothing else I could do to convince it.
106. I had assessed the Second Defendant’s 22nd February 2010 letter as ‘preparatory ground for the next instalment’. I proved to be right. Exactly one week later, it sent me a 2nd March 2010 letter. I refer to Exhibit JC/5. This letter is a near carbon copy of the Second Defendant’s 22nd February 2010 letter. It stated that it was granting dispensation to the First Defendant, and dismissing my complaint on the grounds that: (i) I had “not provided a good reason for the delay between the incident and the complaint and investigating it would likely cause an injustice”; (ii) my complaint was “an abuse of process because the misconduct complaints system does not exist for making changes to old crime reports and I should apply to the Information Commissioner, if there is any way of addressing the issue”.

107. In relation to the comment “old crime reports”: as is obvious from the 17th October 2010 comment from the First Defendant’s officer, I report below under the October 2010 events: “We have to keep information in case you commit an offence and end-up in court” – there is no such thing as “old crime reports”.
108. Under paragraph 12 of its 7th June 2011 Application the Second Defendant claims to have “taken into account the representations [I] made in my 18th February 2010 letter to the First Defendant”, on which I copied the Second Defendant. I strongly disagree with this assertion. The Second Defendant is the appropriate body to escalate a complaint to if the First Defendant fails to address the situation. I maintain that the Second Defendant has also failed me.
109. By then I had been battling, solidly, for 6 months. And, despite my numerous, very laborious and costly efforts, and my resorting to approaching the highest level in the Metropolitan Police asking for assistance, I had made no progress whatsoever. I felt totally abandoned and distraught. I also felt humiliated and debased from the treatment I had been subjected to by State departments that had a duty to help me – a taxpayer. At the same time, I also felt a lot of anger and frustration.
110. Determined to clear my name of the malicious, false accusations against me, and opinions of me, I summed-up my strength and embarked on extensive desk research with the objective of finding a means of circumventing the repeated refusals to meet my demands. I bought a book on the DPA. From this, realised that I could submit a Notice under Section 10. As it imposes a requirement on a data controller to respond within 21 days, I concluded that doing this would be the solution to my problem. The desk research and compilation of the Section 10 Notice cost me several weeks of intensive work. This was all in vain, as the First Defendant failed to respond to my 2nd June 2010 Notice. I refer to Annex 1 of the Particulars of Claim.
111. The rejection of my complaint by the Second Defendant, added to the failure of my strategy number 2, above, led me to conclude that the only solution left was to file a claim – as I knew I could do under the DPA. As I did not have

- £70,000+ to spend on legal advisers, I embarked on 8 months of intensive desk research in order to do this – resulting in my 19th April 2011 claim. In 3 of my letters to the First Defendant (I refer to: (i) 20th September 2009– Exhibit KDR 10; (ii) 20th September 2009- Exhibit 2 to my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant’s Defence; (iii) 28th November 2009 - Exhibit 1, also to my 14th June 2011 Reply), I had warned that if my demands were not met, I would issue proceedings as per my rights under the DPA. As evidenced by events, this threat was not taken seriously.
112. Following my Pre-action letter, it continued to not be taken seriously, as no attempts were made to address the situation - as I was again told to contact the Information Commissioner. I replied to the First Defendant that the DPA does not impose this obligation on a data subject.
113. Kensington & Chelsea police – October 2010
114. I have been under surveillance since at least the beginning of 2002; time when I challenged the managing agents for Jefferson House on the fact that the intended works included the construction of a penthouse flat for which I (and my fellow leaseholders) were not responsible for the costs of doing this. This surveillance was clearly instigated by ADL. It has continued every since. To the surveillance instigated by ADL, I believe that, since the summer of 2005, has been added surveillance by the State. I refer to my 19th July 2011 Witness Statement in response to the Third Defendant’s Application. (2005 coincided with the time I was battling in the context of my complaints against various parties in the professions following ADL’s aides fraudulent service charge demand).
115. The harassment, and more accurately, persecution, has gone well beyond that by including attempts to scare me / make me fear for my life e.g.: (i) on 15th June 2009, a cyclist, who had been following me, delivering a death threat to me: “Enjoy your life. You don’t have long to live”; (ii) on 1st August 2006, 4 men, after midnight, in a parked car, in a deserted street, waiting for me to arrive, on my own. As I was about to cross the dead-end street, they started the car and drove it straight at me; (iii) in 2006, on 26th February, 17th March,

- 22nd March and 19th April, being ambushed by men, when I was on my own, in deserted streets, late at night; (iv) on 6th August 2005, a cyclist hurling himself straight at me, at high speed as I was walking on the pavement; (v) on 16th August 2005, another cyclist, mounting the pavement and stopping dead in front of me as I was walking. All the above 2006 events were on my website at the time the First Defendant “looked” at it.
116. Because of what had taken place in relation to the 3 complaints (as discussed above), I had concluded that there was no point my reporting, to the First Defendant, the ongoing harassment instigated by ADL. As to the other parties involved in the surveillance I believed to be instigated by the State: there was clearly no point doing that either.
117. I felt under siege, a prisoner, from this constant invasion of my privacy which affects all of my daily activities. I also felt totally abandoned, with nowhere to turn to for help. I am a woman, on my own, law-abiding, who has done nothing wrong. Yet, I am being hounded and persecuted as though I were a terrorist, treated as though I were a criminal, instead of what I am: the victim of crime.
118. From buying new software, I discovered that one of the photographs I had taken of the men who had been following me was of better quality than I thought. It decided me to report the harassment to the First Defendant. I thought: it won't be able to turn me down with that evidence. It will have to investigate my complaints. The police has a duty to protect me from harassment.
119. On 4th October 2010, I visited the First Defendant's station of Chelsea Police in order to report suffering what I described as 'racially aggravated harassment' from a man on 20th and 27th July 2010. Because of what had happened with my 2002 complaint, to ensure that the First Defendant captured all the facts, I compiled my evidence in a document, supported by photographs, listed the legislation I believed to have been breached, and endorsed the document with a Statement of Truth. I stated my belief that this man had been put up to it by ADL. I refer to Exhibit 9 of my 14th June 2011

- Reply to the First Defendant's Defence. The photographs included: of the man on 20th and 27th July 2010 and of the car he was driving clearly showing the number plate and make of the car.
120. The First Defendant's officer, PC Giles, told me that she could not see any evidence of racial harassment. I replied that I briefly explained this on page 3 of my document, while showing it to her: (i) ADL claims to be Jewish; (ii) it was clear from his 2007 complaint against me, that ADL used my Franco-German origin as a motive for his complaint; (iii) this is also obvious from the First Defendant's e-mails of 16th and 20th March 2007 to my website Host, in which it branded me a "Nazi".
121. The First Defendant's officer said she would file my report as "an Intelligence Report". In reply to my asking what this meant, she said: "If it happens again, we will have this information on file". As I insisted on filing a complaint, she replied: "But you followed him", to which my response was: "Damn right I followed him. I recognised him from one week previously. I was determined to get evidence. Had I come here without this evidence, your automatic reaction would have been to dismiss my complaint, as well as label me as mad".
122. After the above exchange being repeated, the First Defendant's officer said to me, in a challenging tone: "You say here that you "feared for your safety"". To this I replied: "Yes, when a man follows me, and then circles around me as I am stationary: I fear for my safety". As I noted earlier, I have had a death threat hanging over my head since June 2009. Of note, under paragraph 19 of its Application the First Defendant states: "PC Giles did not accept the Claimant's account that she had feared for her safety". How would she know how I felt?
123. I asked for a reference number. The officer said that she would capture what I wrote "later on, because the station is busy right now". She asked for my contact details in order to send me the information which, we agreed, she would send me by e-mail.

124. On 8th October 2010, I returned to Chelsea police as I had not received anything from the First Defendant's officer, since my 4th October visit. I was told that she would be back on 13th October, and that it was best I spoke to her.
125. I re-submitted my 4th October document, in which I changed the word 'complaint' to 'crime report'. I also submitted another 'crime report': against a man who had been following me over a period of 4 hours on 30th June 2010, and had made it very clear that he was doing this. I reported that he had also been following me previously. Likewise, I included photographs of the man in my report. I refer to Exhibits 10 and 11, respectively, of my 14th June 2009 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence.
126. On 14th October 2010, I returned to Chelsea Police and was told that the First Defendant's officer, PC Giles, was on a training course. Having explained the purpose of my visit, I was told that I should speak to her. I replied that, as she had not done anything over the last 10 days, I wished to speak to somebody else. To this the response was that the officer needed "to speak to her".
127. As I was told that PC Giles was expected back after lunch, I opted to return. I was told that she was on a training course all day, and to come back on 16th October.
128. I returned on 16th October, at 19h. By then I felt extremely angry and frustrated at the way I had been treated considering that I was a victim of crime – and a taxpayer. I decided that, if I was finally able to talk to somebody, I would record the conversation. After the usual 30+ minutes of waiting, I spoke to the First Defendant's officer, PC Giles. I refer to Exhibit 6 of my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence, which is my transcript of the conversation. During this conversation, the First Defendant's officer repeated her initial reasons for not pursuing my complaint.
129. The first reason was that I had "followed the man". I replied as I had done on 4th October, above. In my Reply to the First Defendant's Defence, I noted that it had denied saying this to me.

130. The second reason was that I had “not supplied evidence of racial harassment”. To my saying that it was, the First Defendant’s officer replied: “You can’t prove that though, can you?” To this I replied: “Yeah, because you are not talking to him. So, of course, because that’s very inconvenient evidence: Oh dear! I followed him! My God, I come back with photographs and a number plate. That’s very annoying evidence for the police and for Ladsky. Isn’t it? Because it’s much better to pass me off as mad”. I kept asking: “Why aren’t you talking to that man?” and highlighting the fact that I had supplied ample information for her to do that. I maintained my position that I had been subjected to harassment.
131. The third reason was: “On the information that you’ve given me it was not sufficient enough for a crime report to be put on. That’s why an intelligence report was put on”. As with the first time round, considering the evidence I had supplied, I could not believe my ears that a police officer was saying this to me. How much more evidence did the police need to act? I noted in my Reply to the First Defendant’s Defence that it had also denied saying this to me. I also note from paragraph 6 of the First Defendant’s 30th June 2011 Application that “all the detail must be recorded in an initial CRIS report”, and its comments about complainants’ “subjectivity” under paragraph 7. Why did the First Defendant changed its policy in my case?
132. With my anger level going up several notches, I asked the First Defendant’s officer: “Under which rule of law do you consider yourself entitled to discriminate against me?”. In response to her denials, I attempted to quote the fact that in 2003 and 2007 the police had had no problem filing immediately a “crime report” against me on the basis of totally unsupported accusations against me by ADL, and had done this without ever contacting me. ‘Attempted’ as the First Defendant’s officer kept cutting me to shut me up by saying: “I did not deal with that”; “That’s up to the officer at the time”; “I don’t know the details about that”; “I don’t know anything about that”; “I have nothing to do with that; this is a separate matter”. I was feeling extremely angry, frustrated, humiliated and debased by the attitude of the police. I viewed it as a continuation of the discrimination I had been

- subjected to since 2002 in the course of all of my contacts with the First Defendant.
133. As evidenced by the conversation, the First Defendant's focus was on the 20th and 27th July 2010 man, not on the 30th June 2010 man. It reinforced my belief that the former had been put up to it by ADL, and that the latter was a police informant.
134. I asked to speak to her supervisor. She returned with 2 block notes she handed me. On the 1st one, she wrote the reference number for the Intelligence Report she said to have compiled (BSRT00327225), and the name of the officer on duty at the other station, Kensington police, as she said that her supervisor was "not in tonight". I refer to Exhibit 8 of my 14th June 2011 Reply to the First Defendant's Defence.
135. On that day, when I arrived at the First Defendant's station of Kensington police, at 22h00, I was told that the officer I wanted to see was "out, probably for several hours". I opted to wait. During the course of my conversation with the 2 officers on duty, I mentioned the false "crime reports" held against me by the police. One of the officers looked on a computer and, after 2-3 minutes, called his colleague over, and said, pointing to the computer screen: "Read that!". Their expression suggested to me that it was highly damaging data against me. I wondered what it said. Their reaction brought on feelings of extreme anger, as well as tears I barely managed to fight back as, until 2002 i.e. in my previous 33 years in this country, I had never had any dealings with the police. The only reason I, the law-abiding individual have ended-up on the police systems is because ADL, that evil, greed-ridden monster decided to steal from me. And, while the First Defendant has "No crime report against Mr Ladsky" (I refer to the First Defendant's letter of 23rd April 2002 on page 10 under Exhibit KDR 4) - it holds 2 false so-called "crime reports" against me – his victim. At one point, I was no longer able to hold back the tears from sheer frustration and anger at being treated in that way.
136. After c. 1 hour, I decided to leave. It was suggested that I come back the following day, as "he'll be in".

137. As told, I returned to the First Defendant's station of Kensington police on 17th October 2010. I was again told that the officer I wanted to see was not in. I explained that this visit made it my 7th to the police, and that I wanted to talk to somebody. The officer on duty phoned Chelsea police. After c.30 minutes, an officer arrived saying that he was "today's Supervisor".

138. What followed was a near replay of what took place with the First Defendant's officer on 4th and 16th October 2010 - with the following additions:

- (1) Stating to not doubt my claims that I am being followed.
- (2) In relation to my reports of harassment, the First Defendant's officer said: "We have to capture everything that is reported, but not unlawful information against people; that's a breach of the Data Protection Act" In light of the fact that the First Defendant holds 2 "crime reports" against me that are full of false accusations and opinions of me, I concluded that he was having fun, and viewed his comment as a 'spit in the face'.
- (3) In response to my saying that "the police does hold unlawful crime reports" against me, he replied: "You have not been charged with anything; there has been no follow-up. We have to keep information in case you commit an offence and end-up in court". I replied: "False information, that's what you are planning on using against me in court?". I also asked: "When will you again indulge 'Dear Mr Ladsky' and record another fictitious "crime report" against me and recycle even more of the malicious, false, libellous data from the previous reports?"
- (4) To my saying that "Andrew Ladsky is a fraudster", cutting me before I had a chance to explain my statement, the officer replied: "It's a civil matter". To this I replied: "No, fraud is a criminal offence. So, it is a matter for the police". I had so much anger and frustration that I could not fight back the tears.

139. The officer said that he would "visit Mr Ladsky". I never heard from him.
140. I highlight that, throughout my 7 visits to the First Defendant's police stations in October 2010, I wore, over my coat, a T-shirt stating, in large lettering: "Victim of fraud and corruption – www.leasehold-outrage.com". None of the officers ever commented upon it and hence, never asked me about it.
141. As the First Defendant refused to act on my complaints, I have, of course, since then, continued to be followed. I refer to my Witness Statement in response to the Third Defendant's Application of 7th July 2011. This includes by the 30th June 2010 snoop. For example, on 21st May 2011, I took a bus from Knightsbridge to go to Gloucester Road. I suspected that I was being monitored. In the street on which the Gloucester Road tube station is located, I went into shops. As I came out, I saw that the 30th June 2010 snoop was c.20 metres ahead of me, and turning back to look in my direction. I pretended to not see him. I crossed the street. In shop windows I could see that he was looking in my direction. I went back down the street. The following day, 22nd May 2011, I went to my PO Box. From there I backtracked to get back on the Brompton Road. I then walked on the elevated section of the pavement. As I did so, the same snoop was walking in my direction and purposely passed very close to me to ensure I would see him. I continued walking as though as I had not seen him. I crossed the street to go into M&S. On leaving the shop, as I started to walk in the direction of Harrods, I saw from the corner of my eye that the snoop was resting on the railing on the elevated section of the pavement, looking in my direction. Yet again, I pretended to not see him.
142. Under paragraph 41 of its Defence, the First Defendant states if "[I] was dissatisfied with the way the police handled my allegations against Mr Ladsky, the proper course of action [was] for [me] to complain to the MPS and/or the IPCC". In light of the outcome of my experience with the First, Second and Third Defendants, as detailed in this Witness Statement: there was clearly no point my doing that.
143. As it stands, the outcome is that no matter how dire my situation, there is no point my approaching the First Defendant (nor indeed the Third Defendant) - unless I want to let myself be subjected to even more humiliation and discrimination. So, among others, ADL can continue to do whatever he wants to me – in total disregard of the law of the land. It means that, in relation to the 15th June 2009 death threat, “Enjoy your life. You don’t have long to live”, every night I go to bed wondering: Is this going to be the night I am going to be killed? And, when I wake up in the morning, realising that I have made it through the night, I ask myself: Is today the day I am going to be killed? And every time I ask myself either of these questions, I also tell myself: and nobody will be prosecuted for it.

Statement of Truth

I believe that the facts stated in this Witness Statement are true.

On 17th July, I took delivery of a 14th July letter from Martin Bament, in your department, asking me about documents in be included in the bundles. I am copying him on this letter – and provide the following reply:

- Item number 33: this is now replaced by the enclosed, as detailed above under point 2.
- Items number 37- 41: replacement as detailed above.

I note that a bundle of correspondence has been created, from item number 52, which comprises correspondence from the above Exhibits. This bundle needs to include the clean copies as supplied under point 4 above.

To the items must also be added Exhibit KDR 13 and 14, as detailed above.

On the first page of my enclosed 19th July 2011 Witness Statement in response to your 30th June 2011 Application, I have listed the Exhibits I refer to in the Witness Statement.

I trust you will liaise with Martin Bament on this.

Thank you.
