- 2nd time it sent me its costs. And it got them:
(i) 'Master Eyre's FULL OF LIES 09.08.11 Order - with my Comments attached;
(ii) my 22.08.11 payment

Dear Mrs Klosterkoter-Dit-Rawe,

Re: Yourself - v- The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis (1) The Independent Police Complaints Commission (2) & The Secretary of State for the Home Department (3)

Further to the above, please find enclosed a sealed copy of the Court's Judgment in respect of the First Defendant's recent application.

You will see that the court has also ordered that you pay the costs we incurred in dealing with your claim and making the application. I note that my colleague Martin Bament served a copy of our schedule of costs totalling £8,478.03 on you on 4th August 2011. I serve a further copy herewith and invite you to agree that sum.

In the absence of your agreement and, or a cheque in that sum within 21 days, made payable to "The Metropolitan Police Service" I will apply to the court for our costs to be summarily assessed and a further order compelling you to pay.

I look forward to hearing from you.

It made me a 07.07.11 "Without Prejudice Offer" of "not pursu[ing] [its] costs of the application" if "[I] discontinu[ed] [my] claim". I rejected it in my 13.07.11 letter on the ground that it gave me "no reasons to discontinue my claim - which I maintain"

Yours sincerely,

There are four grades of fee-earner: (A) Solicitors with over eight years post qualification experience including at least eight years litigation experience (B) Solicitors and legal executives with over four years post qualification experience including at least four years litigation experience (C) Other solicitors and legal executives and fee-earners of equivalent experience (D) Trainee solicitors, para-legals and fee-earners of equivalent experience. "Legal Executive" means a Fellow of the Institute of Legal Executives. Those who are not Fellows of the Institute are not entitled to call themselves legal executives and in principle are therefore not entitled to the same hourly rate as a legal executive. In respect of each fee earner communications should be treated as attendances and routine communications should be claimed at one tenth of the hourly rate.
