Dear Mr Hutchings

it had lied to the Jefferson House leaseholders in order to defraud them- and I knew this for a fact because I had challenged the demand in the tribunal: Overview # 2 and # 3 ; more detail: 'Major works' ; Extortion... so that Ladsky could make his multi-million £ jackpot - and the council and Local Government Ombudsman helped him

Getting the landlord, Steel Services and managing agents, Martin Russell Jones, to comply with my rights under Landlord & Tenant legislation to be provided with the year-end accounts for Jefferson House, as well as copy of the trustee accounts

Thank you for taking the time to write to Martin Russell Jones and CKFT, and sending me a copy of this letter, dated 25 June.

Trustee accounts

I note that in your letter you do not make a reference to the provision of trustee accounts which I have requested on several occasions.

Isn't there legislation that compels landlords / managing agents to provide lessees with a copy of the trustee accounts on request? I thought that this was covered under the L&T Act 1987 – or under L&T Act 1985 (?) Section 22 (?)

As a contributor and beneficiary to the trust fund in which contributions to service charges are held (which should include the £6,350 Steel Services has now had from me for many months) – surely I must have a right to be provided with copy?

I have asked MRJ at least 3 times to be provided with a copy. See enclosed my letters of: 15 May 2003¹; 1 June 2003²; 6 July 2003³. This is in addition to my letter to West London County Court, dated 9 August 2003, on which I copied CKFT⁴.

Eventually, in a letter dated 19 August 2003, MRJ replied to me: "... you have requested copies of the bank statements in respect of the money held for the major works. This is in the form of a Bradford and Bingley savings account and as such we do not receive statements except tax ones in due course"⁵.

In spite of the implication of this statement, it cannot be that Bradford & Bingley does not issue statements of the account. Who receives these statements, and hence, who is controlling this account?

Payment of half yearly ground rent to December 2004

Lastly, I would also like to bring to your attention the fact that MRJ have not sent me demand for regular service charges for over a year. While I would not pay them because they have not provided me with year-end accounts, I am concerned about the payment of the ground rent given the forfeiture laws. As you can see from the enclosed, I sent MRJ a cheque on 31 December 2003 for the half year to the end of June 2004⁶. I think I should do the same thing now for the half-year to December 2004.

Yours sincerely,

Noëlle Rawé
