

ORIGINAL EMAIL

From: Rawé, Noëlle
To: newseditor@independent.co.uk
Cc:
Subject: www.leasehold-outrage.com

Sent: Wed 04/10/2006 12:06

PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS EMAIL IS SENT IN MY PERSONAL CAPACITY AND NOT IN MY CAPACITY AS AN EMPLOYEE OF KPMG

Dear News Editor

I have developed the following personal website <http://www.leasehold-outrage.com> because, as stated on the site "there is no avenue open to me for justice and redress in England".

Your newspaper, The Independent on Sunday, published on 17 November 2002, an article, written by Melanie Bien "Off with their heads: the law gets tough on freehold racketeers" I am the 'Nadine' referred to in the article. Melanie did this to protect me from potential retaliatory action. Four years on and the horrendous nightmare has continued.

The home page to the site provides a comprehensive overview of my case.

The site is supported by 800 evidential documents to which a hyperlink is provided whenever referred to. A reference library of a substantial part of these documents is contained under http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_other/document_library.php - which is a list of the 25 battles I have had to engage in an attempt to get justice and redress.

The site took me 17 months to develop using over 2,000 hours of my life. (I initially developed the content in Word: a total of 600 pages)

It was launched last week. It is on a US ISP server, called Verio. Verio sent me the attached email last night which is a request from one of the landlord's solicitors to close it down claiming, among other that I am making false accusations.

URGENT NOTICE
RE: leasehold-ou...

(This particular solicitor is referred to, among others: (1) in the second paragraph of the home page "(in the process, being unable to fulfil (1.1MB) major covenants in my lease)", as well as under the section Notices by landlord – 10 February 2006 http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_home/notices.php))

Their claims are not true – as evidenced by e.g. the content of the home page to my site.

I hope one of your Team can have a look at the site today.

I hope one of your Team can have a look at the site today.

My work number 020 7834 4010

Looking forward to hearing from you

Kind regards
Noelle

(PS. My case has also been reported in other press e.g. if you 'Google me' using Noelle Rawé it will bring up an article in the Daily Telegraph of 21 Jan 2006 + an article on 19 October 2003. I was also covered in the Evening Standard of 3 December 2003 headed "Left homeless for £25" (it did not refer to me))

(NB: If the linked documents don't open, try with:

(NB: My sending this email, (and other very similar ones to other media), by using my KPMG computer, was held against me by KPMG:

- at the 13 Feb 07 meeting with Peter Bassett, partner, and Jeanette Dunworth, HR: Header 3 of my 17.01.08 Grievance to KPMG;

Following my filing a 03.04.08 Claim against KPMG in the Employment Tribunal, under para.7 of its PACK OF LIES Defence (includes my Comments), KPMG claimed that I had committed

"a serious breach of the IT policy which could potentially have led to [my] dismissal".

Aside from the fact that KPMG mixed DELIBERATELY the 13 Feb 07 meeting (sections 3.1 to 3.3 KPMG page) with the 30 Mar 07 meeting (section 3.4)...

...as discussed under section 3.2 KPMG page and, e.g., in my 05.08.08 letter to ACAS, lines 189 - 230, I hold the view that this is NOT true).

From: Rawé, Noëlle
Sent: 04 October 2006 12:06
To: newseditor@independent.co.uk
Subject: www.leasehold-outrage.com

PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS EMAIL IS SENT IN MY PERSONAL CAPACITY AND NOT IN MY CAPACITY AS AN EMPLOYEE OF KPMG

Dear News Editor

I have developed the following personal website <http://www.leasehold-outrage.com> because, as stated on the site "there is no avenue open to me for justice and redress in England".

Your newspaper, The Independent on Sunday, published on 17 November 2002, an article, written by Melanie Bien "Off with their heads: the law gets tough on freehold racketeers". I am the 'Nadine' referred to in the article. Melanie did this to protect me from potential retaliatory action. Four years on and the horrendous nightmare has continued.

The home page to the site provides a comprehensive overview of my case.

The site is supported by 800 evidential documents to which a hyperlink is provided whenever referred to. A reference library of a substantial part of these documents is contained under http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_other/document_library.php - which is a list of the 25 battles I have had to engage in an attempt to get justice and redress.

The site took me 17 months to develop using over 2,000 hours of my life. (I initially developed the content in Word: a total of 600 pages)

It was launched last week. It is on a US ISP server, called Verio. Verio sent me the attached email last night which is a request from one of the landlord's solicitors to close it down claiming, among other that I am making false accusations.

<< Message: URGENT NOTICE RE: leasehold-outrage.com >>

(This particular solicitor is referred to, among others: (1) in the second paragraph of f the home page "(in the process, being unable to fulfil (1.1MB) major covenants in my lease)", as well as under the section Notices by landlord – 10 February 2006 http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_home/notices.php))

Their claims are not true – as evidenced by e.g. the content of the home page to my site.

I hope one of your Team can have a look at the site today.

My work number []

Looking forward to hearing from you

Kind regards
Noelle

(PS. My case has also been reported in other press e.g. if you 'Google me' using Noelle Rawé it will bring up an article in the Daily Telegraph of 21 Jan 2006 + an article on 19 October 2003.

I was also covered in the Evening Standard of 3 December 2003 headed "Left homeless for £25" (it did not refer to me))