

ORIGINAL EMAILS

From: Rawé, Noëlle
To: 'expressletters@express.co.uk'
Cc:
Subject: 06.12.27_2DailyExpress_ www.leasehold-outrage.com is back on... but for how long??

Sent: Wed 27/12/2006 14:54

PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS EMAIL IS SENT IN MY PERSONAL CAPACITY AND NOT IN MY CAPACITY AS AN EMPLOYEE OF KPMG

Dear News Editor

Further to my below email to you of 4 October, after an eventful time, I re-launched www.leasehold-outrage.com on Christmas day. (For detail of events following my 4 October email, please see: http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_home/my_diary_2006_post.htm)

I am struggling with the technology, so it is not quite as I would like it to be (e.g. 'Comments' section) + the PDF documents open in an erratic manner (although everything works fine when I test from Dreamweaver into the browser).

Copy of site on CD-ROM

In light of this, plus the fact that there might yet again be pressure to have the site closed down: I am happy to supply you with a copy of the site on CD-ROM if you so wish. Let me know.

If something happens to me, please pursue it. It won't do me any good, but I hope that it will be of some good to the thousands of leaseholders who, like me, are going through terrible misery. There MUST be an end to this form of government endorsed slavery.

Daily Express copyright

I have quoted a brief extract from an article you published on 16 June 2006 – under :

- Home page #5. <http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/index.htm>
- Lord Falconer of Thoroton #12 http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_iso/falconer.htm
- West London County Court #F http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_iso/west_london.htm
- Home Office http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_mps/home_office.htm
- Document library http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_other/document_library.htm under 'NO', I am not a 'lone voice'. There are 'weighty' voices that are highly critical of the current state of affairs.
- Police #8 http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_police/index.htm
- Police #8 http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_police/index.htm

By the end of this week I will contact your relevant department to determine my position in terms of copyright. (I intended to do it after first launching the site. Then, after the closure, I felt it best to wait until the site was relaunched).

Kind regards
Noëlle Rawé
Tel: +44 (0)2

From: Rawé, Noëlle
Sent: 04 October 2006 12:34
To: expressletters@express.co.uk
Subject: www.leasehold-outrage.com

PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS EMAIL IS SENT IN MY PERSONAL CAPACITY AND NOT IN MY CAPACITY AS AN EMPLOYEE OF KPMG

Dear News Editor

I have developed the following personal website <http://www.leasehold-outrage.com> because, as stated on the site "there is no avenue open to me for justice and redress in England".

The home page to the site provides a comprehensive overview of my case

(In this page, as well as in several other parts of the site, I have captured an extract from an article in your newspaper, issue of 16 June 2006, in which the journalist wrote (following the comment by Home Secretary John Reid that the Home Office "not fit for purpose")...

"I would suggest that this whole Government is "not fit for purpose" and the Home Office situation is just symptomatic of a general uselessness throughout this administration" I followed this by "I WHOLEHEARTEDLY AGREE with this journalist")

The site is supported by 800 evidential documents to which a hyperlink is provided whenever referred to. A reference library of a substantial part of these documents is contained under http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_other/document_library.htm - which is a list of the 25 battles I have had to engage since 2002 in an attempt to get justice and redress.

substantial part of these documents is contained under http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_other/document_library.htm - which is a list of the 25 battles I have had to engage since 2002 in an attempt to get justice and redress.

The site took me 17 months to develop using over 2,000 hours of my life. (I initially developed the content in Word: a total of 600 pages)

It was launched last week. It is on a US ISP server, called Verio. Verio sent me the attached email last night which is a request from one of the landlord's solicitors to close it down claiming, among other that I am making false accusations.

<< Message: URGENT NOTICE RE: leasehold-outrage.com >>

Their claims are not true – as evidenced by e.g. the content of the home page to my site.

(This particular solicitor is referred to, among others: (1) in the second paragraph of the home page "in the process, being unable to fulfil (1.1MB) major covenants in my lease", as well as under the section Notices by landlord – 10 February 2006 http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_home/notices.htm) + Elderly Resident http://www.leasehold-outrage.com/pg_police/elderly_resident.htm)

I hope one of your Team can have a look at the site today.

My work number 7 920 000 000

Looking forward to hearing from you

Kind regards
Noëlle