Dear Julian

Thank you for your letter of 19 July. Apology for this late reply.

I am surprised that my request made under the provisions of the Data Protection Act is not clear to you.

Information/documentation has been provided to KPMG as a result of which action has been taken against me, namely my access to the Internet has been restricted since 30 March 2007. (Concurrently, up to 25 April, my access to the Firm's Intranet was severely curtailed).

I am therefore entitled to know and be provided with the information Mr Ladsky communicated to KPMG and accordingly I am exercising my legal entitlement.

Whether or not it is to provide me with what you think I may be looking for is not relevant and certainly not a factor in your compliance with my request.

You make reference to the fact that the Firm's General Counsel has been involved and accordingly the papers would be privileged and caught by the non-disclosure provisions.

I believe you are not correct in your interpretation and that under s. 35\(2\)\(a\) the information concerning me as provided by Mr Ladsky is rightly subject to disclosure and outside of the provisions you refer to.

Accordingly I look forward to your compliance as a matter of urgency.

Please, use the above address for correspondence.

The 05.10.07 pack he sent me- and my follow on letter of 24.11.07

Thank you.

Yours sincerely

Noëlle Rawé
