Clerk to the Tribunal

Done DELIBERATELY to assist 'the dear brother' Andrew David Ladsky (Persecution # 6)

Of course, as it had done since the Ladsky gang of racketeers filed its 07.08.02 application in the tribunal... ..the corrupt tribunal then continued to fall over backwards for 'the brother' by issuing its so-called 'case summary'. YEP! DEFINITELY PART OF HER MAJESTY'S KANGAROO COURTS!

(A) Considering that the impact of its own determination of 17 June 2003 was to reduce the global sum demanded by nearly 70%, the LVT continues falling over backwards to assist steel services i.e. Mr Ladsky.

(1) It did not include a summary of its decision in the report making it near impossible to figure out the impact on the global sum = other residents won't be able to use it.

(2) Another day of hearing, maybe 2, will cost me £3,000+

That is the basis of the Business Model of these scams: the costs - and how LVTs help landlords implement the scams - including getting back costs if challenged.

BEFORE the hearing, Martin Russell Jones + 'my' solicitors, Piper Smith Basham (Watton) who were batting for Ladsky, issued me with me a 23.09.03 Draft Consent Order
