

- on Thu 24th Apr - At 9h45, going to Waitrose, saw Porter, close to the store carrying Waitrose shopping.
- I got back to apartment at 09h55 - And stayed in until 15h00 - Nobody came, and there was clearly nothing going on in building

Lynton Services Mayfair (1994) Ltd

SITE ADDRESS ; JEFFERSON HOUSE, 7/13 BASIL STREET, LONDON SW3 1AX

For the attention of all residents;

PLEASE BE ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Please be aware that work regarding water hygiene treatment will be taking place on THURSDAY 24TH APRIL - ALL hot and cold water down service supplies including toilet facilities will be disrupted between the approximate hours of 9am to 5pm whilst work is taking place.

NOT TRUE
MAHA HAHA
having a laugh.

Unhindered access to ALL flats will be required throughout the duration of the works.

Please do not attempt to open taps/run water from outlets during this time whilst the work is taking place.

Please make provision for water supplies and toilet facilities prior to our attendance.

Mains cold water services should not be effected.

We apologise for this inconvenience which unfortunately can not be avoided.

CONTRARY TO APPEARANCES in the following ‘notices’ FROM “Lynton Services Mayfair \(1994\) Ltd” that informed of “water hygiene treatment in Jefferson House”:

1. 28.03.14 ‘notice’
2. 23.04.14 ‘notice’ (that gave me less than a 12-hour notice, as I only found it on my return the previous evening) – that was FALSE - as the sub-contractors did NOT come.

= TYPICALLY, VERY SICK Andrew David Ladsky and Martyn Gerrard decided to add to their sadistic kicks. (I concluded that they had (wrongly) hoped that they would make miss my German lesson).

Further proof: no comment was made about it in the next ‘notice’, or in any other communication / at any time subsequently.

As I report in My Diary, 24 Apr 14), I also concluded from the way the porter looked at me as I left “the Jefferson House concentration camp” mid-afternoon on the 24th, that he expected me to inquire about it. I did not.

3. 08.05.14 ‘notice’...

...Lynton Services Mayfair \(1994\) Ltd actually sub-contracted “the water hygiene treatment” to another company...

...(in the same way that it subcontracted “the boiler works” (my 10.02.14 reply to Martyn Gerrard about asking me “to pay for the works”) - in this instance to CMB Services).

As reported on my website, under 8 May 14, undertaking of the “water hygiene treatment” was taken as an opportunity to cause another escape of water in my bathroom ceiling – leading to about 10 litres of water gushing through from around one of the spotlights onto the floor – in the space of c.2 minutes. The first 2 photographs are stills from what I filmed; the 3rd one, of the ceiling, I took on 26 May 14:

(In addition to My Diary), the events are reported in my 15.05.14 letter to Graham Garland, Lynton Services – to which I attached my 11.06.14 letter to the resident of the apartment above mine, and his reply of 12.06.14 denying categorically that the water escaped from his apartment (while also making insulting / misogynistic comments).

In ‘his’ 30.05.14 letter, Garland denied any responsibility. In my 22.06.14 reply I maintained that there was an obvious link – as well as added evidence in support of my conclusion of “a double-act between Garland and Martyn Gerrard –et.al” = Andrew Ladsky (who was in Jefferson House, at least on the previous evening at c. 23h00).