HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON SW1A 0AA

Ms Noelle Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawe

20 August 2003

Dear Mrs Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawe,

Thank you for sending me copies of your letters with the enclosures, detailing the difficulties that you have been experiencing.

I appreciate you taking the time to write to me and while I understand how frustrating your case must be, I am afraid there is nothing that I can personally do to help you. This is due to a strictly observed Parliamentary convention, which prevents me from becoming involved in the casework of individuals who are not my constituents.

The only way I could be of assistance, would be to forward your correspondence to your own MP. However, as you have not provided your postal address and are using a PO Box, I cannot establish who that is. I would suggest that you contact your local MP, and enquire as to what advice or assistance he or she could provide. I am returning your correspondence accordingly.

Thank you once again for writing – I am sorry that I could not be of more help, but I wish you well in achieving a speedy and happy resolution to your case.

Yours sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Charles Kennedy MP

(Dictated by Mr Kennedy and signed in his absence)
