1 Local issues

What is the most important issue you would like addressed in your local area?

- Crime Roads
 Public transport Protecting green spaces
 More for young people to do
 Other (please specify) Residential leasehold fraud.

If there was one thing you could change in your local area, what would that be?

Get rid of chief Superintendent MARK Heath as he considers himself & his officers to be above the law, and to be at the service of criminals (my landlord)

2 London-wide issues

What is the most important issue you would like the Mayor of London to address in the next four years?

- Transport Crime
 Cost of living Economy and jobs
 Value-for-money
 Other (please specify) Residential leasehold fraud

3 Transport

Boris Johnson has secured the biggest upgrade of the Tube network on record. What is the next part of the transport network you would like to see upgraded? Please tick one option.

- Buses Cycle hire scheme extended
 Trams River boat services
 Other (please specify) _____

Boris Johnson has extended the use of Oyster Cards to National Rail services in London and river boat services bringing cheaper travel to thousands more people across the city. How would you improve transport in London?

Frankly: Don't care. I now hate London as much as I loved it - which is A LOT as I opted to make it my home. Why? My experience with the police and other state parties since 2002. Victims of landlords are treated as non-entities who do not have the right to have rights. I have been conned by the state.

Boris Johnson abolished the Western Extension Zone of the Congestion Charge after listening to the people of London. Which transport issue would you like to have more say over?

4 Crime

Did you know overall crime has fallen by nearly 9% since Boris Johnson became Mayor? But more needs to be done to make Londoners feel safe. Which area of crime do you think needs more attention?

- Gang-related crime Robbery
 Muggings Drug-related crime
 Crime on transport Anti-social behaviour
 Other (please specify) Residential leasehold fraud & related criminal offences.

Boris Johnson has removed over 10,000 knives and guns from the streets of London but which of the following would you like the Mayor of London to do to tackle crime further?

- More police on the streets Get rid of the many corrupt officers.
 Reduce pub/bar opening hours Remind the rest that they are NOT above the law
 Use knife arches at more tube stations
 Give police more power
 Create more opportunities for young people

Since being elected, Boris Johnson has quadrupled London's rape crisis provision. Do you support his efforts to increase support for victims of rape?

- Yes No Unsure

5 Cost of living

Boris Johnson has frozen the Mayor's share of Council Tax for three years, this is a 10% cut in real terms. It rose by 153% under Ken Livingstone. What do you think the Mayor of London should do to help you with the cost of living?

- Continue to freeze the Mayor's portion of council tax
- Continue to protect the Freedom Pass
- Support a London living wage
- Continue to get value for money at London Government level
- Other (please specify) _____

Boris Johnson stopped the production of Ken Livingstone's propaganda sheet 'The Londoner' which cost London tax-payers £3.1m per year. Do you support this cost saving decision?

- Yes
- No
- Unsure

Boris Johnson scrapped the £25 congestion charge on family vehicles. At a time of financial difficulty for many, what do you think the Mayor could do to make planning your finances easier?

6 Economy and jobs

Boris Johnson has fought hard to cement London's position as one of the best places in the world to do business, attracting top multinational companies with programmes such as the Tube upgrades and Crossrail, and using the power of the Olympics and the country's biggest new enterprise zone to create tens of thousands of new permanent jobs. What else do you think the Mayor of London should do to create opportunities for Londoners and improve the capital's economy?

- Improve transport
- Go abroad to attract business
- Make planning permission easier
- Make apprenticeships easier
- Introduce more training courses for young people
- Other (please specify) _____

Boris Johnson is determined to bring life back to our local high streets and would like your suggestions as to how to achieve this. What do you think the Mayor of London should do to help the economy in your local area?

7 Olympics

Since becoming Mayor, Boris Johnson has kept the cost of the Olympics down so that Band D council tax payers don't have to contribute more than 38p a week. What do you think about the Olympic Games coming to London next year? Tick all that apply.

- It's great that London is hosting the Olympics
- It is important that Londoners get to enjoy the Olympics without too much disruption
- I'm pleased the venues have been delivered on time and budget
- I'm not happy that London is hosting the Olympics

Boris Johnson founded the Olympic Park Legacy Company to ensure that after the Olympics the Games will leave a lasting legacy for the whole of London to enjoy, creating 10,000 new jobs and a further 10,000 homes. What would you like to see happen with the Olympic venues and facilities after the Games?

- Ensure that local communities have access to the venues and sporting facilities
- The sporting legacy must be preserved
- The most important thing is that the venues aren't a drain on local taxpayers

8 Other issues

If there are any issues that this survey has not covered that are important to you, please tell us in the box below:

My top issues are police corruption & residential tenancy fraud, the latter taking place because the police turns a blind eye / is complicit
