Letter from Michael Howard

Dear Resident,

At the next election Britain will face a clear choice.

Under Mr Blair we've had higher taxes but we haven't seen the improvements we all want.

A Conservative Government will cut taxes and give you better value for money.

But there's so much more we want to do too.

Could add: "Police, like Kensington & Chelsea that will side with abusive landlords against you..."

A Conservative Government will put more police on our streets by recruiting an extra 5,000 police officers each year. This will help restore discipline and respect to our society.

We will get our hospitals clean by giving local infection teams the right to close infected wards without being overruled by managers anxious not to miss government targets.

We will restore discipline to Britain's schools by giving head teachers the power to expel pupils who are being disruptive and stopping others from learning.

And we will control immigration by giving Parliament the power to set an annual limit on the number of people who can settle in Britain. That's what they do in Australia. We should do it here too.

These are our five priorities for government: more police, cleaner hospitals, school discipline, controlled immigration, lower taxes.

But these aren't just another set of promises from a political party. What we promise we will deliver.

We have a written Timetable for Action setting out when we'll get things done. It's so plain and simple, so clear and specific, that we can be held to account if it doesn't happen. You can find out more details at www.conservatives.com.

Many people tell me they feel let down by politicians. I know we can only regain trust through deeds not words.

See page on Michael Portillo and Malcolm Rifkind for prime examples of being "let down by (Tory) politicians"

After nearly 8 years of talk from Mr Blair and his Government it's time for some action. That's what you'll get with a Conservative Government.

Not in Tory-run Kensington & Chelsea!

Yours sincerely,

Rt Hon Michael Howard QC MP
Leader of the Conservative Party

Keeping in Touch

Obviously, Portillo and Rifkind missed out on this communication

Dear Mrs Rawe

The most important role of any elected representative is to listen to the views of their constituents. Whilst they are aware of many local issues, they also need your comments and opinions.

Without your feedback, your elected representatives cannot fully and fairly represent you. It would assist them enormously in their work if you would take a few minutes of your time to complete the enclosed survey. If there is not enough room on the survey form, continue onto a plain piece of paper. Your replies will, of course, be treated in the strictest confidence.

If you have any issues that you feel we would be able to help with, please do let me know. You can write to me at:

Sir Malcolm Rifkind, 1a Chelsea Manor Street, London, SW3 5RP or by e-mail to: Malcolm@kcca.org.uk

Your views are of great importance to me and I really do want to hear from you.

I sent a 06.04.05 letter to Michael Howard. 'Obviously', I did not say 'the right things' - as my letter was NOT even acknowledged

I have enclosed a pre-paid return envelope for your convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Sir Malcolm Rifkind

PS If you would like to vote by post in future elections please contact me on 020 7349 6949 and I will be happy to send you an application form.
