

HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON SW1A 0AA

Ms Noëlle Rawé

It amounted to Rifkind's 2nd 'get lost' to my 07.03.09- but I continued battling as I summarised in my 19.10.09 letter to him. However, more than one year later, through conniving and conspiring with the Parliamentary Ombudsman (PHSO # 2) he succeeded in getting the rejection of my complaint: 29.07.10 2nd 'get lost' 'from' the PHSO = Rifkind

23rd April 2009

See my 08.05.09 reply

Snapshots of complaint:
Doc library # 1.9 and # 1.10

Dear Ms Rawé

Thank you for your communication of 24th March.

Because of his 11.03.09 'get lost' to my 07.03.09 'cry for help'

In your letter you repeat your concern at the way you were treated by the West London County Court, the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal and the courts generally.

Members of Parliament are not able to intervene in the decisions that have been taken by courts of law. If a member of the public feels they have been wrongly treated, then they have the right to appeal to a higher level of court and that is something you must discuss with your legal advisers. If you feel you have already done that, or are unable to do so, then I am afraid there is no further action that can be taken.

With regard to your complaints against the police and the question as to whether you are under police surveillance, that is a matter which can be put to the police authorities through their complaints procedure or the Independent Police Complaints Commission.

I understand you have already done this, and that has not achieved the result you would wish. If that is the case, I am not able to offer you any new avenues that you could pursue.

If, however, you have not made any complaint directly to the police or the IPCC, then I would be happy to forward the papers on your behalf.

Yours sincerely

dictated by Sir Malcolm Rifkind, and signed in his absence

Right! Job done!

Now I can go back to "providing useful access to every British ambassador in the world; charge £5,000 to £8,000 for a half day's work... because, of course, I am self-employed, so nobody pays for my salary".

"Further, I have a lot of time, I read and walk a lot" (Rifkind # B)

"I read a lot" - could have added: and ignore anything I, and my 'brothers' (Persecution # 6) don't like'