For how the "re-decoration" ACTUALLY translated in practice - see MAJOR WORKS ; PHOTO GALLERY ; SALE OF APARTMENTS ; my Comments to 04.03.03 letter 'from' Joan Hathaway, MRICS, MRJ to BRIAN GALE
And Barrie Martin, FRICS, CONTINUED THE LIES: 'his' 02.08.04 letter - preceded by 26.03.02 , 30.08.02 and 04.03.03 letters from Joan Hathaway, MRICS, MRJ
In 'his' 04.08.04 letter, 'he' also had the nerve to accuse me of being "the cause of the London LVT action" (= outcome of CONNIVING with the LVT: OVERVIEW # 2)

Dear Ms Dit-Rawe

Jefferson House, 11 Basil Street, London SW3 1AX
External repair and redecoration work plus internal refurbishment of common areas

As you are aware, refurbishment of the common parts of the building and external repairs will be undertaken shortly. Works will include the redecoration and allied repairs/upgrading to the heating installation in the common area.

In the unlikely event of any damage being caused to adjacent flats, we would like the opportunity to be able to prepare a Schedule of Condition on your flat so that there is an agreed record of its condition before work commences. If any damage is alleged to have occurred, then there is a record of its condition before the contractors commenced the refurbishment.

I would be grateful if you could contact the writer of this letter to arrange a mutually agreeable date for the Schedule of Condition inspection to be undertaken. Also, if you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely

For and on behalf of
MARTIN RUSSELL JONES
