£113,000 fraud gipsy is jailed

A 'SHAMELESS' Romanian gipsy who stole more than £113,000 in benefits was yesterday jailed for three years. Ilie Schian treated himself to sports cars, motorcycles and built his family a nine-bedroom home in Romania with money stolen from British taxpayers. The 47-year-old, who is facing a trial in his homeland for child trafficking, came to Britain in 1999 and admitted making the fraudulent claims between 2007 and this year, Southwark crown court, in central London, heard.
