Dear Noelle

Thank you very much for responding so promptly to my last letter.

Our solicitor has now set up an off-the-shelf company to be our 'Nominated Person'.

The landlord should now produce the documents we have asked for, and it is to be hoped that he will respond more constructively than he has done to date. As has been pointed out, however, we can seek redress against the landlord should we be given grounds for that.

Misplaced hope!

I will let you know as soon as our solicitor has news.

Finally, I am sorry to hear that several of you have yet again been contacted about this matter. To ensure that no misinformation is spread about the position, can I reiterate that it is exactly as I have outlined it and we are proceeding.

If you have any queries at all about any aspect of the issue, please do not hesitate to give me a call and I can let you know exactly where we are.

With best wishes
Yours sincerely

Mr Talbot is taking a robust line - we shall see what landlord does now.
