Dear Ms Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawe

My 06.06.04 comments to her 02.06.04
letter to Piper Smith Basham/Watton

Thank you for your e-mail and the information you have provided. This has been added to my file.

I note the amendments you have suggested. For the time being, I have not discussed these with the solicitors, but will do so at a later stage, if necessary.

I am currently still awaiting the solicitor's response, and I will contact you again, once I receive it.

I look forward to receiving your reply to my cover letter shortly

My 17.06.04 reply

Please don't hesitate to contact me by phone or by e-mail if you have any other queries.

Yours sincerely

Rajdeep Tutt

These were relevant points to be addressed - at the time. But, she was so hell-bent on letting PSB get away with gross misconduct, that she never raised the matters - as I reported in my 30.11.04 letter to her.

Dear Ms Tutt

Thank you for your correspondence dated 2 June.

I propose to reply to your covering letter over the next few days as, unfortunately, I do not have sufficient time at present to reply to both, your covering letter and the letter you sent to Piper Smith & Basham. As you have given them until 14 June to reply and I noticed that some amendments and additions are required to the letter you sent them, for the time being, I will only address these. Please, see attached letter - which I will also send you by post tomorrow.

I thought you may find it helpful to have the attached electronic version of my complaint against Piper Smith & Basham as, for ease of navigation, I have included bookmarks. In addition, you can also use the 'Edit / Search' facility, which brings up a box on the right hand side headed "What word or phrase would you like to search for?"

As in the case of the attached letter, the format is a PDF document. They were created on a PC (rather than MAC computer)

You need to have Version 5 or 6 of Adobe Reader in order to view the documents.

Best regards

Noëlle Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawé
