Ombudsman

v. in 'her' 29.07.09 reply: "We have carefully considered the papers". I wrote in my 27.08.09 reply that she had NOT as, in my 12.07.09 complaint I HAD provided all the evidence - supported by a 164-document bundle. I knew from corrupt Rifkind's 17.06.09 letter "The Ombudsman will need confirmation that you have followed the formal complaints procedures" that it would be used as an excuse to reject my complaint.

22 September 2009

In the light of my 164 supporting documents, the only thing they could "provide" were internal diktats for ensuring that I was subjected to injustice and criminal psychological harassment (Persecution # 1). Reality: this was a fabrication, used for cover-up

Dear Ms Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawe

Thank you for your letter of 27 August 2009 regarding your complaint about HM Courts Service (HMCS) and the Residential Property Tribunal Service (RPTS).

We have been in further contact with both organisations that have kindly provided correspondence relating to your complaints.

We have carried out a preliminary assessment of your complaint and have concluded that it now needs more detailed consideration before we can decide whether the Ombudsman should carry out a formal investigation. Please note we have given your complaint a new reference number of EN-69099.

I will arrange for your complaint to be passed to one of our assessors, for that further consideration.

However, as I explained in my letter to Sir Malcolm Rifkind MP, of 29 July 2009 the Ombudsman is only able to consider complaints about the administrative actions of HMCS and RPTS, and cannot consider complaints about decisions on cases, or the way in which a committee or tribunal conducted proceedings.

You can contact meantime.

if you have any questions in the

Yours sincerely

I knew that - and the evidence I provided very clearly fell within these categories.

Translation: that was going to be used as the next excuse for rejecting my 12.07.09 complaint...
