Evidently not "clearly" enough. Translation:
Oh! dear! Oh! dear!
I 'dared' to challenge the corrupt Kensington police mafia

Dear Ms Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawe

Thank you very much for your letter dated 20th September 2009 addressed to Chief Superintendent Heath. I note that you have quite clearly expressed your concerns about accuracy to Jenna Neville at the Metropolitan Police Public Access Office.

Translate "her" to 'my' response

As you quite rightly point out, the Information Commissioner may serve an enforcement notice if he considers the Data Protection Act is breached and if you are dissatisfied with her response I would suggest you contact the office of the Information Commissioner. If it assists, I have shown the details below:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire SK9 5AF
Tel: 08456 30 60 60 or 01625 54 57 45
Fax: 01625 524510

Translation: Get lost!
Ever since you first contacted our police station, in 2002, we haven't given a damn about your legislative rights; so, we are certainly not going to start doing this now... because, like our executive (My Diary # 2.6) we are 'above the law'

Yours sincerely,

Steve McSorley
AI/ Chief Inspector.

At 1 Sep 09, the website www.met.police.uk/met/boroughs/kensington-chelsea, described McSorley as "Acting Chief Inspector, Professional Standards & Performance"...

"Steve is responsible for all matters relating to complaints, misconduct and civil actions. He also heads the Operational Performance Unit and leads on improving the borough's performance around Citizen Focus"

In the light of this 'reply' and his subsequent letter of 20.11.09 - it gave me a good laugh.

Like ALL the others - all the way up to the executive - he is a thoroughly evil, corrupt to the core, extremely vicious monster.
