No reply one month later; I sent an 11.11.09 chaser letter (Ditto re my 08.10.09 letter to Mark Heath, Chief Superintendent: 11.11.09)

Dear Mr McSorley

After a 17.11.09 acknowledgment, I received an outrageous 20.11.09 letter from McSorley. It led me to write to the then Met Commissioner, Sir Paul Stephenson and then Home Secretary Alan Johnson: 28.11.09 ; 02.12.09

IN LIGHT OF YOUR ROLE AT KENSINGTON & CHELSEA POLICE: HOW DO YOU EXPLAIN YOUR RESPONSE OF 22 SEPTEMBER 2009?

I acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 22 September 2009, following mine of 20 September to Chief Superintendent Mark Heath, Borough Commander, Kensington & Chelsea police. (The delay in replying is due to the fact that I only took delivery of your letter on 4 October. It had not arrived by 27 September).

I note that:

- You have failed to address any of my 14 questions in my 20 September letter to Mr Heath – at the end of which I concluded “As the above are very clearly in breach of, among others, the Police Professional Standards, as Head of K&C police: what are you going to do in the face of this litany of outrageous, gross misconduct?”
- and, concurrently, you have ignored the detail behind these questions - which is contained in my 20 September 2009 reply to Jenny Neville, Public Access Office, a response I was forced to write in light of her 25 August 2009 reply to my 13 August 2009 response. I supplied all of these documents with my 20 September 2009 correspondence to Mr Heath – except the bundle of 49 supporting documents enclosed with my 13 August 2009 response to Jenny Neville).
- You have also failed to acknowledge my request that a letter is “immediately sent to my website Host retrieving all the malicious, scurrilous and libellous accusations made against me by your member of staff, TDC Simon J Dowling of the ‘Community Safety Unit’, in his 16 and 20 March 2007 emails to my website Host – and that you copy me on this letter”.

As you state in your 22 September letter that I “have quite clearly expressed my concerns about accuracy”, it evidently cannot be the reason for your ignoring all of my correspondence.

Considering that, on the website for Kensington & Chelsea police (http://www.met.police.uk/met/boroughs/kensington_chelsea) your role is described as:

“Steve is responsible for all matters relating to complaints, misconduct and civil actions. He also heads the Operational Performance Unit and leads on improving the borough's performance around Citizen Focus”

What is your explanation for ignoring all of my correspondence?

Furthermore, while you have ignored the content of my 20 September letter and enclosures, you have provided me with the contact details for the Information Commissioner - which I did not request - stating that you are doing this if I am “dissatisfied with Jenna Neville response”. This, added to the above, suggests that you – and colleagues - anticipate that I will need to contact the Information Commissioner and, by implication, that you will not address the matters raised.

I am copying Chief Superintendent Mark Heath on this letter, as well as your reply, to determine whether he endorses your response.

Yours sincerely,

Which, of course, he was doing...as was the executive:
