

Application for Telephone Trace Indecent, Annoying or Obscene Telephone Calls

As detailed under police # 1, following receiving numerous anonymous phone calls in my apartment, I filed - and signed - a complaint at Chelsea police on 18 Feb 02 - BUT, it "lost it", leading it to fax me another version, I returned on 20 Feb 02.
This was the start, in my case, of THE POLICE PROTECTING ANDREW DAVID LADSKY

- NOTES: (a) Ask the complainant to read and sign the authorisation certificate
 (b) Obtain authorisation from inspector
 (c) Fax copy of form to operations centre supervisor
 (d) File in accordance with local agreements

Date 19-2-02 Crime Ref. No. 5604102/020
 Police Station CHELSEA NOTE that this "a crime" - confirmed in the 19.02.02 letter
 Officer in case PC COOBS MAYOR Contact Telephone No. 020 8246 0711
 Name and Address of Complainant NOELLE DIT RAWÉ
3 JEFFERSON HOUSE, 11 BASIL ST, LONDON SW3 1AX
 Home Telephone No. _____
 Other contact Telephone No. _____

Telephone No. at which calls are received

Line Provider: BT Other (specify) _____
 Date and time of calls 17-2-02 2150 - 2155
Subsequently, there were more calls _____

Type of telephone used by caller:

Private Public Other (specify) _____
 Nature of call (include exact conversation if possible) _____

Details of caller:

Male Female Apparent age _____
 Type of voice _____ Accent _____
 Other distinctive features _____
 Identity if known _____

BT nuisance call leaflet served: Yes No

In the event that it is technically possible, I hereby authorise the line provider to take such action as is necessary to trace the number being used to make the above calls. I am willing to support a prosecution in the event an offender is traced.

Complainant's Signature _____ Date _____

Data Protection Act 1998 s.29(3)

I am making enquiries which are concerned with:
 (a) The prevention and detection of crime
 (b) The apprehension or prosecution of offenders

Inspector authorising trace _____ Signature _____