Dear Ms N Klosterkotter-Dit-Rawe,

RE: Reference to the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors on the internet

We acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 18 August 2008 and note that you are in effect refusing to remove the references to RICS and The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors from your website.

Therefore, having already given you notice that your web references identify the Institution and clearly have an intention to damage the reputation of the RICS, we now intend to commence legal action against you for damages for slander and legal costs, if all said references are not removed within 14 days. Full details of our claim will be set out in the Particulars of Claim. No doubt Martin Russell Jones will also be taking similar legal action against you.

Yours sincerely,

A Hatton, Solicitor
