

NOTE: For copyright reasons, this is a significantly reduced version of the article

Judge raps court staff over papers.

4 August 2001

The Sentinel

English

(C) The Sentinel, 2001.

A JUDGE launched a scathing attack on court staff during a case involving a solicitor who faces multi-million pound money laundering charges. District Judge Graham Richards accused administrative staff at Stoke-on-Trent Magistrates Court of "gross incompetence" for failing to provide him with paperwork on the case.

.....

"I can't believe the incompetence of the people who run this court." ...

....